the street is settling under heavy loads, and now about one foot of solid concrete is being poured to make a safe foundation there hereafter. It will be several weeks before the street will be back in useable form again.

It's a long way to Christmas, but David Persful has already sent in a letter properly mailed with three-cent stamp, addressed to Santa Claus, North Pole, and with return address in the upper left hand corner "David Persful, Monroe, La."

A letter just received by Jes' Ramblin' states: "I enjoy your column so much that I never miss it. Have an addition to your towns with Court House in them; Sussex County, Virginia. It is usually abbreviated thus: Sussex C. H. Va. "I have been getting some of my family re-ords from there and had a hard time finding it on the map."

"Thanks again for all the publicity you have handled for me and other teachers. Best wishes, Ione A. Hill.

12 Jurors

would tip their hand on the subject. Earlier, proceedings were enlivened by pretty Miss. Belle Marie Parker, who exposed herself to the risk of a contempt citation by chatting about Sheppard with friends and relatives this week.

However, her only punishment was dismissal from the jury panel after she had all but qualified. The 28-year-old General Electric Co. Inspector admitted she had discussed the case with scores of persons, even after the trial judge had sworn all prospective jurors to silence against discussing the case.

It was revealed that two of the jurors are distantly related by marriage. Edmund L. Verlinger, tentative juror No. 3 volunteered the information that the man next to him, Thomas J. Solli, married a sister of his (Verlinger's) wife's uncle.

"Well, I don't know what that would amount to," remarked trial Judge Edward Blyth.

However, it was learned that at least one side in the case may try to make something out of the relationship later.

Dr. Sheppard is on trial in the July 4 slaying of his blonde wife, Marilyn, 31. She was beaten to death in her bedroom. Mrs. Sheppard was four months pregnant.

The handsome 30-year-old osteopath has pleaded innocent. He claimed a bushy-haired man invaded the lakefront. Sheppard home and knocked him unconscious when he tried to aid Marilyn.

The state's only suggestion thus far of a motive in the slaying was Dr. Sheppard's purported love affair with pretty Susan Hayes, a 24-year-old former technician in the osteopathic hospital in Bay Village.

Immigrant

Charles once said, "by getting contractors and artisans who did business with the Skouras enterprises to work for cost."

The Skouras rags to riches tale was one that Horatio Alger would have loved. He landed in New York penniless in 1908. Like many a Greek immigrant of that era, he found work in a restaurant at 50 cents a day plus meals. Next he went to St. Louis where he worked in a hotel first as busboy, then waiter and finally bartender.

Living frugally and saving his money, he soon had enough to send for his younger brothers, Spyros and George. He got them jobs as busboys in the Jefferson Hotel and banked their wages with him.

As the patriarch of the family trio, he invested the savings in a nickelodeon, patriotically called the Olympia, and began to rise with the then brand new movie business.

Survivors include his wife, Florence, whom he married 45 years ago, and two daughters, a son and five grandchildren. His home was a penthouse above the headquarters of his vast theatrical empire.

DR. OPPENHEIMER HONORED—Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, right, head of Princeton University's Institute for Advanced Science, who earlier this year was denied Atomic Energy Commission security clearance and removed from all government work, was honored Thursday night by the Pyramid Club in Philadelphia "for unstinting devotion of his own great gifts to the end of increasing man's knowledge." He is shown here chatting with Dr. Howard Stratton, left, president of the Pyramid Club, and Prof. Milton Stanley Livingston, president of the Federation of American Scientists. (AP Wirephoto)

Two Criminally Insane Patients Still At Large

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 22 (AP)—Col. T. B. Birdsong, commissioner of public safety, today denied reports he would call off a search for the worst and last of four patients who slugged their way out of the Mississippi mental hospital at near-Whitfield last Saturday.

Col. Birdsong returned today from the National Safety Congress in Chicago. He had attended the annual affair with Grady Gilmore, public relations director for the highway patrol; A. D. Morgan, administrative assistant; and patrolman George Hendrix.

Three of the patients were captured as a result of sharp-eyed residents of Rankin County who spotted the escapees and turned them in before they could get out of the area.

Each patient was re-captured separately and claimed ignorance of the whereabouts of the others. But, Luther Musselwhite, 34-year-old Charleston man committed for beating a man to death with his fists, remained at large tonight, one week after the escape.

Col. Birdsong, convinced Musselwhite still is in the swamps bordering the Pearl River, cautioned hunters and asked them to report any signs of human habitation in the area.

Meanwhile, search continued in North Mississippi and Memphis, Tenn., for a fifth escapee, Robert Sheldon Britt, 28, of McComb, who fled the unguarded institution Monday evening in a stolen automobile.

Three employees, convicted of aiding his escape, were fined $25 and sentenced to 30 days in jail yesterday.

Unemployment In Nation To Drop Below 3 Million

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Oct. 22 (AP)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell said today that unemployment will drop below three million persons this month for the first time this year.

Some 3,100,000 were reported out of work in September. Peak for the year was 3,725,000 last March.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks announced also that a sampling of industry opinion, made at the meeting of his Business Advisory Council here, indicates for 1955 "a slightly better year than 1954" in business activity, production and employment.

A report on BAC's economic policy committee, headed by dean Donald K. David of the Harvard Graduate School of Business, foresaw a "prudent prosperity" and highly competitive markets.

Some of the nearly 100 corporation heads who make up BAC told reporters privately they personally expect the present pickup in activity to carry 1955 ahead of record 1953.

Mitchell said preliminary figures on October employment indicate joblessness will go below three million. He concurred in the view that next year will show an improvement in both employment and production.

GOP Leaders

leave the White House about 10 a.m. for a motor trip to his farm at Gettysburg, Pa., where he will deliver a "pep talk" to GOP candidates and state party leaders. The talk will be made at a buffet lunch.

Meanwhile, Republican national chairman Leonard W. Hall called on all GOP congressional candidates to "reaffirm their staunch" support of the administration's security program. He said it is under attack by "the left-wing opposition."

Democratic national chairman Stephen A. Mitchell promptly retorted that GOP leaders, including Hall and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, have "perverted" and "distorted" the security program and use it "as a political weapon."

Bank Official

the suit was any sort of reprisal for the banker's testimony. He said the subcommittee has had some difficulty obtaining witnesses, adding that there have been indications that "others would like to testify but are afraid to."

Davis assured all witnesses that the Senate group "will not sit idly by" and allow them to be intimidated. McLean said he welcomed the suit.

"They are asking for the works—they're going to get it," he said. McLean, president of the Commercial National Bank in Little Rock, said his defense will be an effort to prove the truth of what he has said about Arkansas Power & Light over a period of some years.

Langer's outburst came near the end of a hearing in which a former governor of Arkansas, Sidney McMath, testified the utility was "the most powerful political influence in Arkansas . . . an unhealthy influence that conducive to good government."

He said it tries to "crush" any elected officer who recognizes "there is a people's side to any conflict" with power interests. He declared the company employed money and influence to beat him for a third term as governor in 1952 because he favored the building of a steam power generating plant by a group of cooperatives.

Langer's antimonopoly committee is looking into a contract, already approved in form by the Atomic Energy Commission, which would authorize the Dixon-Yates private power group to build a 107 million dollar steam plant at West Memphis, Ark. The power would be turned over to the Tennessee Valley Authority which would service it to customers. It would take the place of other power which the TVA supplies to AEC.

Principal members of the Dixon-Yates group are Middle South Utilities, Inc., headed by Edgar J. Dixon, and the Southern Co., whose board chairman is F. A. Yates.

Arkansas Power & Light is a subsidiary of Middle South. In his testimony before the subcommittee, McLean has called Arkansas Power a "most corrupt and ruthless" arm of the Dixon-Yates combination. He urged the government to re-scrutinize the Dixon-Yates contract carefully to avoid the possibility of a "national scandal."

Arkansas Power's president, R. E. Ritchie, has described McLean's statements as "so unfounded and so completely ridiculous that I do not care to make any further comment than to say categorically that they are absolutely untrue."

In the suit filed against the banker today, the utility alleged McLean has made "malicious, false and slanderous statements" against it and was "trying to destroy the good name of the plaintiff."

The suit also charged that Arkansas Power & Light was injured by a letter McLean wrote members of the utility's board of directors shortly after the firm applied for a permanent rate increase of $3,900,000 a year, and by attacks McLean made on the company in at least two civic club speeches.

C. Hamilton Moses, Arkansas Power's board chairman, told a reporter the suit "in essence embodies many of the things said by McLean over a period of time." Indicating it was not based on McLean's testimony before the suit group.

Davis told newsmen here the testimony of any witness before an official committee of Congress cannot be made the basis of a lawsuit because it is "privileged matter."

Moses declined to comment on former Gov. McMath's statement that he would try to get McMath, as well as Davis, to help defend McLean.

Langer followed up today's hearing with a statement in which he asked:

"Is it sound public policy for the government to enter a long term contract with these companies, which are not only monopolies but have abused their monopoly position and have perhaps unclean hands?"

"Are we not encouraging the growth of monopoly in this country when we contract with these people, thereby enlarging the scope of their operations, increasing their property and wealth, and enhancing their influence and position as monopolies in this country?"

"I think the testimony we are hearing during these sessions should be understood within this framework," Langer continued. "These are serious considerations, and the administration ought to examine closely into them before it finalizes any contract with the Dixon-Yates group."

President Eisenhower ordered the AEC to enter into a contract with Dixon-Yates last spring. The administration has defended the contract as a fair one in the public interest.

Langer said sworn testimony in the hearings so far indicates that Arkansas Power and the Mississippi Power & Light Co., "components of Mr. Dixon's empire," have "charged excessive rates for inadequate service, have had great political influence in their respective states—so great that there cannot be any effective state regulation, and in general these companies are dominated by Wall Street."

McMath told the subcommittee he was defeated for a third term as governor in 1952 after he refused an offer of Arkansas Power to support him if he in turn opposed construction of a steam power generating plant by a group of cooperatives under the Rural Electrification Administration.

The former governor said a principle block to economic development of Arkansas has been opposition by private power interests to development of new, low cost sources of power.

"This is a fight between the private power monopolies and the people of the United States," he said. "It is a fight the people cannot afford to lose."

McMath testified that Arkansas Power's advertisements displayed a motto, "Building Arkansas," but that the company seemed to believe "what is good for Middle South and Arkansas Power is good for Arkansas."

He said the company has made some contributions to the progress of the state, but only when the company also derived benefits.

Davis commented that McMath's testimony in effect seemed to contend that Arkansas Power treated the state of Arkansas as its subsidiary. He asked the witness whether he shared that view.

McMath replied that he thought the company had "a great deal of influence, and the parent organization has a great deal of influence at the national level."

Asked if it was politically hazardous to stand up against Arkansas power, McMath said, "I'm a living example of that."

He testified Arkansas Power and Middle South represent "not free enterprise, but monopoly, unrestrained and unregulated."

He also said there seemed to be some tie-in between the Dixon-Yates contract and a rate increase put into effect in Arkansas recently under bond. Both were "pushed with great urgency," he reported.

If the Dixon-Yates contract becomes effective, McMath said, "it will be impossible for the state of Arkansas to regulate Middle South or Dixon-Yates. We'd be at their mercy."

Langer recessed the hearing until an indefinite date. If possible, he said, the inquiry will be resumed sometime next week.

John R. Thompson of Austin, Ark., a former member of the state's Public Service Commission, was present and ready to testify today, but Langer said he would not be heard until later.

Landslide Kills 260 Villagers In Berly, Haiti

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Oct. 22 (AP)—A helicopter landing team reported today a landslide Tuesday night wiped out the mountain village of Berly, 20 miles south of here. Rural police estimated 260 inhabitants were killed.

They reported there were only two survivors of the entire village population—a child who fled ahead of the rumbling earth slide and a woman who was away visiting neighbors.

Word of the disaster was brought here by Capt. P. Burchett, head of the Inter-American Geodetic Survey. He landed on the buried village site in a helicopter piloted by Capt. William McKewen.

A Red Cross party headed by Pastor Turnbull and his wife reached the village site on a 35-hour trek over boggy and pathless mountain ranges in heavy fog.

McMath testified that Arkansas Power's advertisements displayed a motto, "Building Arkansas," but that the company seemed to believe "what is good for Middle South and Arkansas Power is good for Arkansas."

He said the company has made some contributions to the progress of the state, but only when the company also derived benefits.

Davis commented that McMath's testimony in effect seemed to contend that Arkansas Power treated the state of Arkansas as its subsidiary.

He asked the witness whether he shared that view.

McMath replied that he thought the company had "a great deal of influence, and the parent organization has a great deal of influence at the national level."

Asked if it was politically hazardous to stand up against Arkansas power, McMath said, "I'm a living example of that."

He testified Arkansas Power and Middle South represent "not free enterprise, but monopoly, unrestrained and unregulated."

He also said there seemed to be some tie-in between the Dixon-Yates contract and a rate increase put into effect in Arkansas recently under bond. Both were "pushed with great urgency," he reported.

If the Dixon-Yates contract becomes effective, McMath said, "it will be impossible for the state of Arkansas to regulate Middle South or Dixon-Yates. We'd be at their mercy."

Langer recessed the hearing until an indefinite date. If possible, he said, the inquiry will be resumed sometime next week.

John R. Thompson of Austin, Ark., a former member of the state's Public Service Commission, was present and ready to testify today, but Langer said he would not be heard until later.

Saar Dispute

Friday night at the residence of Ambassador Sir Gladwyn Jebb. But what started out to be a gala event celebrating the coming of age of West Germany turned into a grim and serious affair.

The dispute over the Saar completely overshadowed a day of achievement in which:

1. The United States, Britain and France agreed finally with West Germany to end the occupation under a new Bonn treaty.

2. The 14-nation NATO council, with Germany sitting as an observer, voted formally to invite Germany to join the organization.

Former Police Chief Held; His Partner Missing

WILBURTON, Okla., Oct. 22 (AP)—Latter county authorities Friday held a former New Mexico police chief in jail while a search Friday held a former New Mexico police chief in jail while a search party sought the man's 54-year-old ranching partner.

Object of the search was Russell Jones, who disappeared from his ranch eight miles southeast of here Wednesday after he telephoned Deputy Sheriff J. B. Black he needed help.

Black said Jones told him he had had an accident and wanted Black to come to the ranch right away. The deputy said he did not find Jones when he arrived 15 minutes after the call, but Jones' partner, Joe Black, and a refrigerator repairman were there.

The officer said both men denied seeing Jones. Jones' pickup truck and saddle horse were at the ranch, Black said.

Some 200 persons were to resume the search for Jones Friday, following an all-day hunt over the 1,200-acre ranch Thursday.

Large Off-Year Election Vote Forecast In Survey, Despite Public's Apathy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—Despite widespread reports of voter apathy, state election and party officials look for a probable vote on Nov. 2 of around 45,115,000, an increase of 2,800,000 over the previous record for a midterm election, in 1950.

These same officials estimated for the Associated Press that 74,879,146 persons are eligible to vote for congressional and state candidates this year. This also is a record for a nonPresidential election year, being 4,924,668 higher than the 1950 qualified voter total, the last top.

It is normal, however, for both registrations and the vote to climb from one midterm to the next because of the growth in "potential" voter population.

"The Census Bureau estimates the nation's vote potential — civilians 21 years of age and over — has climbed 3,200,000 since 1950 to 100,223,000. This is exclusive of an estimated 2,500,000 persons over 21 in the armed forces.

But it is interesting to note, in view of reports that voters generally are not excited over upcoming contests, that the 1954 probable vote estimate is around 60 per cent of the number estimated to be qualified to cast ballots, the same ratio as in 1950.

Both parties are plugging for a large vote Nov. 2 on the theory that a full turnout will help their cause. Democrats feel more voters mean a bigger protest vote. Republicans believe a good turnout spells a vote of confidence in the administration.

If the estimates of the probable vote are borne out, 39 states will top their 1950 total for House candidates, and 34 will show gains over their highest 1950 figure.

The nine states estimating smaller votes compared with their aggregate House ballots four years ago are Idaho, Indiana, Missouri, Ohio, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin. The 14 figuring lower balloting in contrast with their highest turnout in 1950 are Arizona, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

Thirty-four states estimated gains over 1950 in the number of persons who have registered, paid poll taxes, or otherwise have met state voting requirements. Ten states, including New York, showed declines.

Four states — Iowa, Maine, Missouri and Wyoming — remained about the same.

Largest estimated increases in eligible voters were:

California 640,000; Ohio 598,000; New Jersey 580,000; Florida 430,000; Tennessee 400,000.

States showing declines along with New York are Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, Minnesota, Mississippi and North Dakota.

Research Grant Of $9,000 Given On Sugar Waste

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 22 (Special)—In an effort to improve the condition of some Louisiana streams, a research grant of $9,000 has been made to Louisiana State University by the Louisiana Sugar Producer's Waste Control Council.

The amount will permit the L. S. U. department of chemical engineering to conduct a detailed study of nature, amount and qualities of sugar factory wastes. Efforts will also be directed toward the development of simple and inexpensive methods for treating sugar factory wastes and reducing their quantity.

Joseph Wheeler, a graduate chemical engineer from Alexandria, has been named an industrial research fellow to conduct the work for the university. Dr. Arthur G. Keller, professor of chemical engineering will direct the project.

The control council was organized this year to improve the condition of waters receiving sugar factory wastes. In addition, sugar mills have spent $50,000 for the construction of detention basins, spray ponds and other control structures, and they make continuous tests at local plants to reduce the possibility of accidental pollution to a minimum.

Cooperating in the grant are the DuBois-Sugar Company and the St. Mary Sugar Co-Operative, Inc. of Jeanerette, the Breaux Bridge Sugar Co-Op., Erath Sugar Co., Iberia Sugar Co-Operative, New Iberia, Lafourche Sugar Co., Thibodaux, Sterling Sugars, Inc., Franklin, and the Vida Sugar Company of Loreauville.

Gun Shot Causes Cable Difficulties

FERRIDAY, Oct. 22 (Special)—Telephone officials announced this week that a gun shot had caused temporary damage to the Jonesville-Ferriday long distance cable here.

Five long distance circuits were out between Alexandria, La., and Natchez, Miss.; ten long distance circuits from Ferriday to Natchez were out; and five circuits were still between Jonesville and Natchez, according to A. B. Kessler, manager of the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

District manager Kessler said repairs were rushed to the scene immediately and estimated that it took five hours before all long distance circuits were restored to normal working order.

"This is the fifth time this telephone cable has been damaged by a gun shot," Kessler said. "With the hunting season under way, hunters and others who might have occasion to fire shotguns, rifles or pistols in the countryside near aerial telephone equipment are asked to be careful of communication lines, Kessler indicated. "Even the smallest shots can cut a telephone wire, shatter an insulator or otherwise cause disruption of service," he said. "This causes telephones to be out of service and calls to be missed, and some of these calls may be a matter of life and death," Kessler declared.

Negro Bandit In Kansas City Robs Bank Of $3,209

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22 (UP)—A Negro bandit robbed the Grand Avenue bank of $3,209 at mid-morning Friday and escaped on foot, police reported.

Armed with a revolver, the bandit walked up to a teller's cage and demanded the money from Margaret Adams, whose father, William Adams, was on guard duty in a bullet-proof turret on the second floor of the building.

"He must have made extensive plans," a bank official said. "He went to the cage that is not visible from the guard's turret."

As he demanded the money, Ray Wittig, a teller in a cage next to Miss Adams, ducked under a counter and sounded the bank's alarm.

But it didn't appear to frighten the bandit.

"He wasn't nervous at all," said Miss Dorothy Hamilton, a teller on the other side of Miss Adams. "She handed him the money, and he calmly put it in a paper sack. Then he walked out the south door through the lobby."

Police issued a pickup order for the bandit, describing him as six feet in height, 23 years old, wearing sun-tanned trousers, a Navy jacket and bare-headed.

An immediate count of the money revealed the total loss, which bank officials said "was in bills of small denomination."

Censure For The Senate

The Morning World reprints this editorial by David Lawrence, Publisher of U. S. News and World Report with a great deal of interest. It was the Petersen case, you will remember, which originally involved (supposedly) Loyola University of New Orleans. As events transpired, there was no background for the supposition.

Mr. Lawrence and his "United States News and World Report", an independent American Weekly news magazine published in Washington, has taken a decided stand in defense of American principles. The following editorial on security, or lack of it, should be of the greatest interest to the citizens of this nation.

A SENSATIONAL REVELATION—disclosing a grave lack of security inside the executive branch of the Government of the United States—has just been made.

Joseph S. Petersen, Jr., a scientist specializing in physics and mathematics, has been arrested and formally charged with having in his possession—outside his office in the Government—secret documents of the highest importance. Our Government knows they were transmitted to a friendly government in Europe. The papers were then passed on to Moscow presumably by an agent planted in one of the offices abroad of that friendly government, which itself is now astounded and embarrassed by what has happened.

For nearly five years—from March 1948 to December 1952—documents of a top-secret nature were taken out of the National Security Agency by Professor Petersen, an employee, and used, as the Department of Justice now charges, with the intent to injure the United States.

The damage done by this leakage is incalculable. An attorney from the Department of Justice told the court that the far-reaching extent of the injury to the United States may not be known for several years.

The National Security Agency—which is not to be confused with the National Security Council—is a "hush-hush" operation wholly inside the Department of Defense. It is under Army jurisdiction. It is engaged in studying ciphers and developing codes. It is vested with the duty of protecting the secret communications of the United States Government.

As a consequence of this laxity, it may be asked, how much has Moscow been reading of our secret messages as they passed in code from Washington to telegraph and radio offices in other countries—messages to and from our embassies and messages containing vital facts about our Army, Navy and Air Force, and about the location of our atom-bomb piles abroad?

The truth is that, despite all the recent debate about running subversives out of the Government, there still are weaknesses in our security system.

Each governmental department or agency is, for example, the final judge of its own security set-up.

There is no over-all check and supervision from the standpoint of efficiency and follow-up.

No government-wide system to evaluate on a professional basis the derogatory information gathered about government personnel has yet been established.

Too much attention has been given to the smokescreen raised by the "left wingers" about protecting individual rights and too little time has been spent investigating the security techniques of each department.

The Army seems particularly vulnerable. To this day the public doesn't know the truth about the breakdowns of security at Fort Monmouth, N. J., where new radar devices were being developed for use in intercepting enemy bombers.

To this day we don't know who in the Army promoted Dr. Petersen to be a major, and who sat on the board which failed to dismiss him as a security risk.

To this day we don't know why the recommendations made months ago by officers in the Army urging a cleanup at Fort Monmouth were so long disregarded.

It is the duty and responsibility of Congress and particularly of the Senate of the United States to check up on governmental operations of this kind.

Why, therefore, did a Senate committee spend nearly three months on trivialities such as the Cohn-Schne case, when there were serious deficiencies in our whole security system that need to be investigated by that same Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations of the Senate Committee on Government Operations?

The record shows that the Senate itself has been preoccupied with petty controversies over the intemperate remarks and manners of a Senator but has allowed a system of communication between our topmost secrets fall into the hands of a subversive.

The Senate is to convene in special session on November 8. It is more important job to do than to insist that committees be given full information by every government agency as to the procedures in use and the reasons why a certain person or persons must handle secret documents. It is not checked and double-checked periodically by a competent board.

The Petersen case is a shocking affair. It brings into question the honor of the Government itself. It is a shameful neglect of the public interest. It is contemptuous of the American people.

Censure in the court of public opinion must be visited upon that large number of Senators who, by their diversionary acts, have actually "obstructed the legislative process." For they have unwittingly blocked the work of the very committee charged with the all-important duty of investigating governmental operations—particularly our security system itself.

The issue is more important than the individual behavior of any Senator. It involves a means of protecting the safety of the United States from the espionage of the Communists—a matter of the highest priority for the American people.

"Communism, most powerful of the present reactionary groups, depends upon military forces only as an auxiliary to its chief reliance, which is the deterioration of free institutions, the indifference of the masses, and revolt by well-organized and disciplined minority." Robert H. Jackson, Associate Justice, U. S. Supreme Court.

THESE DAYS

A Notion That Failed

The theory that a Congressional election could be won by photographs of Republican candidates for Congress together with President Eisenhower has produced no practical results. Nobody cares about these particular photographs as long as they can get some of Marilyn Monroe and similar ladies. The photographs, so avidly sought and so widely advertised, are playing no part in this campaign. It is an axiom in politics that no man can transfer his personal popularity to any other man.

So the theory that a Congressional campaign could be fought without issues, without debate, without attacks and counter-attacks, has also dissipated itself into nothing. A tepid campaign can produce only tepid reactions. Those who conceived the idea of a light discussion about nothing by gentlemen with the amenities of a gentleman's club bar did not understand the temper of the American people.

The campaign is getting nastier. It will be very nasty in its last week because candidates are getting desperate. Irving "Ives" Accumbat, a candidate for governor of New York, is a response to the insistence for a fighting campaign. They all want to be elected but too many Americans do not want to vote. Why bother if the candidates do not bother to fight it out, as the fashion has always been in this country? If the nice gentlemen who wish to keep the campaign gentle and refined are distressed by the developments in New Jersey, they have not yet seen the worst in New York or Connecticut or California. If a gubernatorial contest in Arkansas becomes a series of accusations, it is nothing compared to the raising of the Dixon-Yates issue as a basic campaign argument.

The President finally made an appeal for a Republican Congress and in that he was right. But the surprising fact was that Harry Truman should have opposed that concept of what is good for America. It was Harry Truman who conducted a campaign all over the country about the 80th Congress, the Do-Nothing Congress. The 80th Congress was a Republican Congress during the Truman administration. It was under the leadership of Robert A. Taft, it was an embarrassment and a harassment for President Truman.

He knows that it is tough on a President to have a Congress of the opposite party. President Eisenhower should have known that, too. He should have known it because he is the leader of a political party. It is his business to know how American politics operate. He should have recalled the unfortunate experience of President Herbert Hoover whose career as President was wrecked by an antagonistic Congress.

Those who advised President Eisenhower not to fight for a Republican Congress, not to fight hard, misled him. If the Republicans lose either House or both of them, his next two years will be very tough. The Congressional committees will be chaired by Democrats and they will use the next two years to build campaign material for 1956. Senator John McClellan will head the McCarthy committee and his counsel will be Robert Kennedy whose ambition it is not to be overshadowed by a famous father and a distinguished brother. The Judiciary Committee, which should have gone to Pat McCarran, will now go to Senator Harley Kilgore of West Virginia, a so-called liberal and a Republican hater. He may also head the present Jenner committee, although that should go to Senator James O. Eastland of Mississippi. Senator Estes Kefauver will be back, reinforced by a large vote in Tennessee, and now a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President. He could use the next two years to advance.

If President Eisenhower thinks he had troubles with Joe McCarthy, he has seen nothing yet. The Democrats are out to win in 1956 and their slogan is that the Republicans do not know how to run a government. If they gain control of the Congress, they will try to prove that and they will go into the past two years with a fine comb. It could be very unpleasant. To blame the fine gentlemen in President Eisenhower's entourage who believe that politics in the United States are nasty and unbecoming for gentlemen, if the voters agree with them, they will have ample opportunity to stay away from what is nasty and dirty. But this is also true: It is best for the country when a President and Congress are of one party. Copyright, 1954, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Understanding Vs. Control

The schools are in a state of change. Maybe they reflect the state of the world? Anyway there it is. The teachers are caught in the middle. This is most keenly felt by the teachers in the junior and senior high schools. The adolescent boys and girls they face come from all kinds of homes. They are of varying degrees of intelligence. Some of them "know not God nor fear him."

When the teachers, in desperation, report this state of affairs to the administering bodies they are listened to with more or less sympathy. They are advised to try to "understand" the child. This may be followed by a suggestion that they take one of Professor So-and-so's courses.

Now an experienced teacher often understands the wayward pupil well. What he does not understand is how he is to control this child or children and teach the class what they are there to learn. The classroom teacher has only his personal authority to help him. This authority is complex. It is an intangible expression of knowledge exercising power over ignorance. It carries the weight of experience. It speaks with the voice of the disciplined mind and dedicated soul. It is the voice of righteousness.

"This boy comes late. He is untidy. He is chewing gum. He swears into the classroom snatching a working sheet off a student's desk. He drops heavily into his seat. His legs sprawl into the aisle. He calls across the room as though he was on the street. I suggest he go to work. He sneers and says, 'Who says so? You?' This goes on as long as I can stand it. Either he goes out of my classroom or I do."

Now the professor says, "he feels inferior to others, his home—"

"Just a minute, Professor. I know him. I know WHY he is this way. What I want to know is how I am to control him, get him into an attitude of mind and body that permits me to teach him? How I am to teach the class of willing learners while I have to spend my time and theirs in attending this lot?"

"Tut tut, Mr. Specs. Your own attitude needs adjustment. You see—"

"Sorry, Professor, but I'm on duty. Just this one word more. Understanding a pupil is one thing. Understanding this boy and others like him, I know he needs rehabilitation. I know my classroom is not the place for that. While he stays I cannot teach and thirty-four other boys cannot learn. Rather expensive, this lad?"

When a child lies, there must be a reason, but lying must be stopped before it becomes a habit. Dr. Paul says, first, find the cause in his leaflet P-15, "Lying." To obtain a copy, send 15 cents in coin to him, care Morning World, P.O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N.Y.

Facts Worth Knowing

The elaborate iron grillwork seen on many homes in Savannah, Ga., is about a century old. The decorations were introduced by French royalists who fled to this southern city when revolution flared on the island of Hispaniola in the West Indies.

Not for do-it-yourselfers: An American paperhanger, George Washington, and his friend, the Marquis de Lafayette, personally papered the dining room of historic Mount Vernon in less than half a day.

On March 13, 1916, General Carranza was given the right to cross the international border with troops in pursuit of Pancho Villa. The privilege of entering Mexico for the same purpose was accorded United States troops.

IN WASHINGTON

Nine Old Men

It has been twenty years since the New Deal filled Washington with serious young men, so eager to serve their government that some of them put into poetry their visions of the bright new world and how they expected to direct its course. Only a few aging and disillusioned members of that group are still in government, and once again there's an opportunity for younger men.

One exception to the young man's era of 1934 was the United States Supreme Court, which became known as "the Nine Old Men," a reference later used by President Roosevelt in his attempt to pack the highest court and give him a chance to appoint new justices. This was subsequently accomplished without amending the Constitution by permitting justices to retire at age 70 at full pay. Within five years the average age of the court had dropped more than 10 years.

Now time is producing another mature crop of Supreme Court justices. Of the three appointed during the Roosevelt heyday of younger men, Justice Hugo Black is 68, Justice Stanley F. Reed is 69, Justice Felix Frankfurter is 72 and Justice William O. Douglas is 56. President Truman named Justice Harold H. Burton, now 66, and Justice Sherman Minton 64 and Justice Thomas C. Clark 55. The only Eisenhower appointee, Chief Justice Earl Warren is 63.

Four of the eight justices now sitting are at retirement age or within four years of it. Justice Frankfurter, who originally advocated retirement of federal court justices at 70 is now 72 but does not like to be reminded of his former stand. Justice Reed will be 70 on December 1 and may bow out at the end of the year.

That brings up the question whether President Eisenhower will take the side of the old men or the young men in appointing a new justice to succeed the late Justice Robert H. Jackson, to be explicit, whether he will pick a man under 60, or one over that age. He has indicated that he wants to name a jurist from a lower court rather than a lawyer without judicial experience, which makes selection of a man under 60 more difficult because there are not more than a half dozen in that group who are outstanding, and they are Democrats.

Nothing in that round up on ages sheds much light on the Supreme Court decision. The impression here is that if the President can't find a satisfactory Republican under 60, he'll pick one old.

How Close Louisiana's Senators Hewed To 'Party'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (CQ)—How frequently did Louisiana's Senators vote with their party on the 171 roll calls of 1954? Sen. Ellender, a Democrat, scored 55 per cent in 1954, while Sen. Long, a Democrat, scored 72 per cent, according to an analysis by Congressional Quarterly.

Republican Senators averaged 69 per cent, Democratic Senators 73 per cent by this gauge, which calls Party-Voting score is the percentage of all roll calls on which he votes in agreement with the majority of his party.

Sen. Ellender got his 55 per cent score by voting with his party 94 times on the 171 roll calls of 1954, and against 29 times. He voted with his party on 54 per cent of the 260 Senate roll calls taken during the entire 83rd Congress, 1953-54, when Republicans averaged 77 per cent, Democrats 63 per cent.

Sen. Long voted with the majority of his party 123 times and against 49 times in 1954, for his 72 per cent in Party Voting. His 1953-54 Party-Voting score was 64 per cent.

The top Party-Voting score for 1954 was 89 per cent of Maine's two Republicans, Margaret Chase Smith and Frederick G. Payne, Minority Whip Earle C. Clements (Ky.), led the Democrats, with 83 per cent. The lowest-scoring Senators were James O. Eastland (Miss.), for the Democrats, and William Langer (N.D.), for the GOP, with 35 per cent and 36 per cent, respectively.

On 82 of the Senate's 171 roll calls of 1954, the majority of Republicans who voted opposed the majority of Democrats who cast ballots. CQ labeled these 82 partisan roll calls Party-Unity votes.

When he took a stand on 1954 Party-Unity roll calls, Sen. Ellender sided with the majority of his party 67 per cent of the time. Stands include party and actual public declarations, as well as actual votes. Sen. Long's Party-Unity score was 72 per cent.

Average 1954 Party-Unity scores were 90 per cent for Republican Senators, 76 per cent for Democrats. Individual scores ranged from Styles Bennett's (R., N.H.) 109 per cent to William Langer's (R., N.D.) 36 per cent. The Democrats were led by Lester Hill (Ala.) and A. S. Mike Monroney (Okla.), with 89 per cent, while Harry Flood Byrd (Va.) and Seward L. Holloman (N.C.) trailed at 73 per cent.

For 1953-54, Sen. Ellender and Long scored 55 per cent and 68 per cent, respectively, in Party-Unity. Republican Senators averaged 67 per cent, Democrats 76 per cent. There were 123 Party-Unity roll calls.

Party-Unity scores are generally higher than Party-Voting scores because 1) stand as well as votes are counted; 2) failures to take stands are not charged as "times against."

Southern Democrats had the lowest 1954 Party-Voting score of any region, while Western Republicans had the highest. Here are the regional standings for the Senate and for Senate and House combined.

Senate: Republicans, east, 81 per cent; Midwest, 73 per cent; south, 68 per cent; west, 84 per cent. Democrats, east, 66 per cent; Midwest, 67 per cent; south, 67 per cent; west, 65 per cent. Both chambers: Republicans, east, 73 per cent; Midwest, 74 per cent; south, 76 per cent; west, 81 per cent. Democrats, east, 69 per cent; Midwest, 71 per cent; south, 63 per cent; west, 68 per cent.

FORTRESS AMERICA

"If my weather eye is correct, there is an increasing tide running in the direction of the 'Fortress America' concept. The idea that our safety lay in dependence on other nations is a notion created and nurtured as a result of the last Administration. It is at last being cut down to size. In its place, there is coming into its own the ancient and honorable truth that our strength lies in ourselves." — Rep. Harold C. Osterberg (R., N.Y.), Oct. 7 Newsletter.

Testimony Against Senator's Nephew In Air Force Trial Involving Assault On Yugoslavian Girl Is Concluded

FRANKFURT, Germany (U. S. A. P.)—A U. S. Air Force court-martial today heard final prosecution testimony against airman Jack W. Jennings, 25, accused of raping a pretty, 21-year-old Yugoslavian refugee.

Jennings, of Anderson, S. C., is the nephew of U. S. Senator Olin D. Johnston (D-SC).

Defense attorneys said they would take the witness stand and deny he raped the former Anna Marie Greb, now married to airman Richard O. Fall of Pontiac, Mich.

One of the latest prosecution witnesses today was Jennings' former commanding officer at Weisbaden, Lt. Col. Robert B. Erdman of Oak Field, Wis.

Erdman testified that Jennings came to him last February and denied raping Miss Greb on Feb. 16. He quoted Jennings as saying:

1. That Miss Greb became unconscious in his automobile after drinking in a bar, and that he tried to revive her by slapping her.
2. That he believed Miss Greb's husband-to-be, airman Fall, "had put her up to filing the rape charges."
3. That Miss Greb knew who he is—the nephew of a U. S. senator.

Famous Trichologist Will Demonstrate How To Grow Thicker Hair ...And Guarantees It! Demonstration to be Held Here

This new method of home treatment for saving and growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Monroe, La., Sunday ONLY, Oct. 24, 1954.

These private individual demonstrations will be held at the Francis Hotel on Sunday ONLY, Oct. 24, 12 NOON to 9 P.M.

Dr. F. F. Keele, international leader in hair treatment, and President of the Keele Hair and Scalp Specialists, Inc., and "There are 18 different scalp disorders that cause men and women to lose hair. The common sense, a person must realize no one tonic or so called cure-all could correct all the disorders," he explained.

"The Keele firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads, offer a guarantee," Keele said.

"On a person avails themselves to the Keele treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee: 'If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress at the end of 30 days your money will be returned.'"

HOPELESS CASES DISCOURAGED

First the Trichologist is quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the "hopeless" cases are few. Only if a man is completely, shiny bald is he in this lost category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin, or colorless, the Keele treatment can perform wonders. A complete, private examination is given by a Trichologist to determine the condition of his scalp, and the cause of his hair trouble.

Stay Granted To Halt Integration Of Negro Pupils

DOVER, Del., Oct. 22 (U. S. A. P.)—The Delaware State Supreme Court today granted a stay of a lower court injunction restraining the Milford School Board from barring 10 Negro pupils from the all-white Milford High School.

The stay had been requested by Howard Lynch, counsel for the board, in order to appeal the injunction to the State Supreme Court.

The effect of the stay is to retain the status quo. The ten pupils are currently attending a nearby all-Negro school.

The court gave counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which had requested the injunction, until Nov. 29 to answer Lynch's briefs due Nov. 15.

The appeal itself will be heard by the high court on Dec. 13.

In its decision, the court stated there are "serious questions of law touching the existence of that legal right of the Negroes to attend the all-white school." This court, should be given sufficient time to examine these questions without disturbing the status quo as it existed upon the filing of the suit.

Referring to the order signed by Vice Chancellor William Marvel on Tuesday, the court said "it appeared to the vice chancellor that the legality of the admission of the Negroes to the Milford school... had been clearly established and that they therefore had a clear legal right entitling them to immediate relief."

The three-man court said, however, that "from arguments of counsel and such examination of the briefs as we have been able to make during recess... we are convinced that there are serious questions of law touching the existence of that legal right."

Traffic Deaths In State Drop Very Sharply

BATON ROUGE —UP— Gov. Robert Kennon, proud of Louisiana's record in the summer "slow down and live" campaign, today announced the Southern Governors' Conference will devote a full day to highway safety next month at Boca Raton, Fla.

Kennon, acting chairman of the conference in the absence of Gov. Johnston Murray of Oklahoma, said Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington will be the featured speaker. Langlie was one of the originators of the "slow down" drive.

The annual conference of the 14 Southern governors is scheduled for Nov. 11-14.

Gov. Kennon pointed out that 14 states, 11 "Yankee" and 13 from Dixie, competed from Memorial Day through Labor Day this year to see which could best reduce its highway death toll.

Louisiana led all 24 states, Kennon said, with a fatality record 41 per cent below last year's, a saving of about 75 lives. The southern average was a 15 per cent cut, enough to defeat the North.

Next year, Kennon said, all 48 states will participate in the campaign.

The 18-month survey of Louisiana's highway needs released today should be "a major item for consideration" of the proposed 1955 legislature, Kennon continued.

A constitutional amendment to be voted on Nov. 2 would set up the special 30-day session.

It will take about $2,700,000,000 and from 10 to 20 years to overhaul the state's highways streets and roads, the report stated. "Louis-

Winnfield Co-Ed Receives Honors

NATCHITOCHES, Oct. 22 (Special)—Barbara Dickerson, Winnfield, this week became the first co-ed in the history of Northwestern State College to gain the double honor of reigning as queen over both the Centa and State Fair courts in the same year. Eight other girls were named to the NSC court of royalty which will reign at the Louisiana State Fair in Shreveport Saturday.

Majorette of the Northwestern band and battalion sponsor of the local R.O.T.C. are other distinctions held by Miss Dickerson. She is a nursing major and will go to the Confederate Memorial Hospital, Shreveport, in January to complete training.

Her court was chosen by the student body from 21 nominees who were selected by the various dormitories and the Student Council on the basis of scholarship, character, and service to the school. All are juniors or seniors and six are members of the Purple Jacket organization.

Elected were Joan Noble, Winnboro; Linda Jones, Shreveport; ana was wise to get this done," Kennon said.

Although the wording of the proposed amendment is somewhat ambiguous concerning matters the special session could take up, Kennon said he has little doubt that it could act on the survey.

Building Construction Here To Cost $172,000

Building construction totaling $172,000 in downtown Monroe and the addition of a proposed auto parking lot are included in the most recent developments in real estate here. They indicated that Monroe is making constant progress.

The largest project will comprise the erection, by the Auto Park Corporation, of a three-story fireproof building to be used for parking as many as 200 automobiles on the lot on North Third street immediately at the rear of the Monroe Furniture building.

Work of razing the fire-damaged walls of the old structure, property of the Monroe Furniture Company, was initiated Thursday. The building will be supplied with ramps for ease in placing and removing cars, stated J. G. Durrett, president of the Monroe Furniture company, which is owner of the site to be utilized.

Mr. Durrett stated that it will cost approximately $100,000 and should be up and in use in 90 days time. It is expected to prove popular with those who desire a place to leave cars in downtown Monroe.

The same company operates similar parking facilities in Tyler, Shreveport and elsewhere.

Another project for downtown Monroe is that of the erection of a one-story, fireproof building for Dr. Frank P. Rizzo, at 523 Jackson street. A contract has been awarded to Brice & Kaylor for $22,000.

The building will be fireproof, cream brick, completely air conditioned. There will be facilities for two physicians with all the appurtenances of modern physicians' office, and also with a prescription pharmacy also included.

Dr. Rizzo stated that when the building is fully furnished and equipped it will represent an expenditure of $50,000 for building and essential facilities.

It is also announced that Dr. Rizzo has just been named chief of staff at the new St. Francis Hospital. The physician stated that it is hoped to have it opened in its greatly enlarged form by December.

A third development in a real estate way is the sale of two buildings immediately east of the post office on Grammon street. They are the two-story frame building at 312 and the former residence of the late Mrs. Gladys Sperry at 314 Grammon.

The Palace Department store purchased these houses. Sale of both properties owned by the heirs of Mrs. Sperry was made at a price reported as $50,000.

City Courts

MONROE

The following cases were disposed of yesterday in Monroe City Court by Judge W. M. Harper: Thomas L. Finely, Jr., 19, Route 3, Monroe, was fined $37.50 or 37 1/2 days for reckless driving and was fined $25 or 25 days for not having a driver's license. The reckless driving charge carried a compulsory jail sentence of 15 days.

Archie Williams, 24, Negro, Tallulah, charged with theft, was sentenced to 6 months in jail.

Otis Brown, 30, 317 Stone, was fined $5 or 5 days for disturbing the peace.

Henry L. Johnson, 25, Graham, was fined $5 or 5 days for disturbing the peace and was fined $15 or seven days for drunkenness.

Four forfeited $15 bonds on drunkenness charges. They were: Leslie Jackson, 45, Negro, 210 Eleventh Street; Herman Gordon, Negro, 1903 Breaud; John Gobbie, 23, Collins; and Charles Cabot, 30, 510 Oak.

Eloy Cobb, 35, 4316 Lee Avenue, charged with drunkenness was sentenced to 30 days in jail.

WEST MONROE

The following cases were disposed of yesterday in West Monroe City Court by Judge Howell H. Heard:

L. D. Wilbanks, Route 3, West Monroe, charged with drunk driving and not having a driver's license, was fined $300 and 30 days and $10 or 10 days on the respective charges.

Four persons were charged with indecent exposure. They were: Joe Woods, 29, Negro, Calhoun; Evans Robinson, 21, Negro, Calhoun; Elsie Mae Thomas, 19, Negro, Calhoun; and Fannie Bell Davenport, 20, Negro, West Monroe.

Herbert Williams, 43, Negro, Monroe, forfeited a $15 bond on charges of being drunk and disorderly.

Highway Crash Fatal To Negro Here Thursday

A 32-year-old West Monroe Negro died last night as the result of injuries received in an automobile crash on highway 80 six miles west of West Monroe yesterday afternoon.

Hospital attendants identified the victim as Ray Cassey, 32, of 819 Coleman. He is reported to have been badly crushed, suffering multiple internal injuries, a broken pelvis upper leg and arm. He failed to rally from deep shock, even after six pints of blood were administered to him, attendants said.

His riding companion, less seriously hurt, was still being held in the St. Francis last night, under observation for a head injury, it was reported. He was identified as Paul Williams, 37, 326 Gatlin St., West Monroe.

According to a woman who resides near the scene of the accident, it occurred near the Steep River bend on highway 80. She reported the Negro driving the car, and that he lost control of it, hit the back of another car, and came to rest when it crashed into a telephone pole.

State police investigated the accident at noon yesterday, but last night no information was available from the headquarters of District E. H. A. Trooper said, "The shift changes at 2 p.m. and no one is here who investigated the wreck." He said records were probably made but he didn't know where they were located.

Judge Ponders Testimony In Cooper Hearing

Transcriptions of testimony taken in the Joe Cooper case were delivered to West Monroe City Judge Howell H. Heard on Thursday, and since that time, he has been studying the testimony.

Judge Heard said he could not set an exact time for rendering the decision, since he has not completed study of the case.

The boy, in the meantime, remains at the Louisiana Training Institute after being committed to the school for drawing and displaying a sharp knife before his school principals and trust officer.

Civil Service Probe Of Political Activities By State Workers Is Slated

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 22 (AP) — The Louisiana Civil Service Commission said today it will investigate complaints that 16 state workers in Avoyelles Parish violated the ban against political activities by classified employees.

The commission announced an open hearing in Alexandria Nov. 4 and civil service director W. W. McDougall said 46 witnesses will be summoned.

Any classified state employee found guilty of the violations can be suspended or fired, McDougall said.

The commission acted after receiving a letter from Maxwell Borden, Marksville, complaining of political activities by eight state employees in recent elections for district judge and district attorney in the 12th judicial district. Borden was an unsuccessful candidate for district attorney.

Civil service records provided by McDougall said the eight are being investigated for complaints ranging from driving a political sound truck to attempting to influence other voters to support a candidate.

The state constitution forbids political activity by classified employees except in expressing private opinion serving as voting commissioners or voting. The section is known as the "little Hatch act" of the civil service amendment.

Another eight employees, McDougall said, became involved during the initial civil service investigation.

McDougall said the 16 called for the hearing were:

Sheriff Clears Forgery Suspect In Investigation

The case against Reacy Gaines, charged with forgery of a $101.96 Missouri Pacific railroad payroll check, has been dismissed because an "intensive investigation" by the sheriff's department has proved his innocence, Sheriff Bailey Grant said.

Gaines was charged in a warrant sworn out by Tony Refina, of Josephine's Grocery, with forging the name of "S. White" to a payroll check belonging to a man by that name, Grant said.

The sheriff said investigation showed the following:

"A Negro by the name of C. Furgerson, an employee of the Missouri Pacific railroad, went to the clerk there and asked for his check. By mistake, the clerk gave him a check made payable to S. White.

"Furgerson, being unable to read or write, didn't know the check was not his. He went to Josephine's grocery, where a colored female employee endorsed the check for him. Furgerson then paid his grocery bill.

"Later, when Refina got the check back marked forgery, he called the sheriff's office and gave a description of a 'large Negro with a scar under his neck.'

"Gaines, who fitted the description, was taken into custody and Refina identified him as the Negro who cashed the check.

"However, the sheriff's department and a special agent of the Missouri Pacific continued the investigation, and discovered the true facts in the case.

"Refina asked, when told of the facts, 'Where's my money?' The sheriff's department returned the check to Refina, and advised him to take it up with the railroad.

"When Furgerson's check failed to be cashed, the paymaster checked with him, and Furgerson reported that he already had received his check. The investigation was easy from there.

"There was only a difference of about three dollars in the checks," Grant said.

Woman Held In Crash, Driver Booked By Police

Following an auto collision at the Sterling intersection yesterday, a Monroe man was arrested for reckless driving, and the woman who was riding in the car with him was hospitalized and treated for minor injuries before being released.

According to police, Loyd Finley, Jr., 19, of Monroe, was charged with reckless driving and driving without a license. He was later released on a bond of $225.

A woman identified as Vera Price, 23, also of Monroe, suffered lacerations and bruises, police said, and was released from the St. Francis sanitarium.

Officers said Finley's car was traveling west on DeSiard when it sideswiped another car driven by Solomon Smith, Jr., 28, of Monroe, as Smith was attempting to make a left turn onto the Sterling road.

They said Smith's car was stopped when Finley's auto struck it on the left side. After the collision, Finley's car travelled 138 feet from the point of impact, crossed a service station traffic island, and knocked down a telephone pole, police said.

Real Estate Transfers

Charlie Raymond Hill sold to A. J. Lester, Block 5 of J. F. Heard's Second Addition for $1,900.

Joseph H. Lambert sold to A. J. Lester, Lots 12 and 13 of Block 2 of Hinkle Addition for $2,400.

J. B. Greene sold to Harry E. Kennon today a chance for Louisiana to establish a radar tornado warning system linked with a 14-station Lone Star network.

The proposal calls for either the state or cities involved to spend up to $30,000 for converting war surplus radar units.

Four cities were suggested for the Louisiana net—New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Shreveport and Lake ton Mills Second Addition for $8,550.

Greater Monroe Development Co., Inc., sold to C. M. Gibson, Lot 15 of Block 16 of Ouachita Cotton Mills Second Addition for $8,400.

Ollie D. Westbrook sold to David W. Vestal, Lot 17 of Square 52 of T. E. Flornoy's Second Addition for $7,100.

Henry E. Tatum sold to Courtney Rogers, a lot in Rayville Development Corp. Subdivision for $4,885.07.

Jack Davis sold to Monroe Building and Loan Association, Lot 4, Square 75 of Lee Avenue Addition for $3,000.

R. M. McKaskle sold to J. W. Scott, a lot in Section 8, T18N, R3E for $1,500.

Biedenharn Realty Co., Inc., sold to Corbin J. Turpin, Lot 12, of Block 2 of H. W. Moore's Subdivision for $400.

Mrs. Sadie R. Russell sold to Samuel G. Crowell the N½ of NE¼ of Section 10, T16N, R1E and the Sp of NE¼ of NE¼ of Section 10, T16N, R1E for $2,000.

Charles, each station covering a radius of about 250 miles.

The Texans said similar proposals would be made in Oklahoma.

Kennon, after conferring with the Texas tornado and storm warning committee, asked two members to meet here Nov. 9 with Gen. Raymond Fleming, state adjutant general, and Gen. Francis Woolley, state civil defense chief. The officials will determine what can be done.

Either state or interested local governments must pay the initial cost—totaling about $36,000 for the three proposed units at New Orleans, Baton Rouge and Shreveport. Lake Charles already has a radar station.

The weather bureau would staff and maintain the radar teams.

Each of the 14 Texas communities installed their own units.

Joe S. Fletcher, assistant director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, told how the Texas net operates:

Mrs. Corbin Turpin Is Hostess To Review Club

The home of Mrs. Corbin Turpin was the setting for the October meeting of the Review Club. The president, Mrs. L. N. Waddell, presided.

Mrs. Fred Haeffelfeld, Jr., gave the life story of Joseph Conrad, the Polish author, who was the literary master of his day for his ability to express himself in an ideal form.

Mrs. Wright Will Lecture In Newellton

FRIDAY, Mrs. LaMonte Wright of Ruston will demonstrate and lecture on Christmas decorations at the high school auditorium in Newellton Friday afternoon, November 5 at 2:00 p.m. This program is being sponsored by the Newellton Garden Club and there will be an admission of $1.00.

Mrs. Wright is a national accredited flower show judge and her experience as a judge has been full and varied. She has had over twenty years' experience in landscaping, drawing and executing plans which include home grounds, public parks, churches, schools, and general buildings. She was owner and operator of a flower show during which time she attended several classes.

She has been lecturing and teaching classes in flower arrangements for several years, but her preference is working with arrangements for the home, the church, and holiday decorations.

Cypress HD Club

Mrs. N. Pinton was hostess to the Cypress Home Demonstration Club on Tuesday afternoon. The meeting opened with a song, "Smiles", then prayer by Mrs. Hilton Owen. After the pledge of Allegiance the roll call was answered by "How I would like to spend a rainy day."

A brief business session was held. The reports were given which included a very good one on Safety by Mrs. N. T. Williamson. The president then turned the meeting over to Mrs. Euna Spielman. She gave an interesting demonstration on the "Calorie value of foods" with a general discussion by all.

Attendees were Mrs. G. F. Owens, Mrs. N. T. Williamson, Mrs. Hilton Owen, Mrs. Clyde Blakeney, Mrs. Euna Spielman and Mrs. Pinton.

Mrs. H. S. Provine Presides At PTA

TALLULAH — The October meeting of the Tallulah Parent Teachers Association was held in the high school auditorium with Mrs. H. S. Provine presiding and Mrs. Don Richardson serving as secretary. The meeting opened with the P.T.A. prayer in unison. Mrs. George Kimbrough reported $344 in the treasury. Mrs. L. A. Nettles reported on the P.T.A. calendars and Mrs. Ilse Osborne on the collection of used clothing.

Mrs. A. M. Eiseley gave a talk on the Madison-Tensas Workshop recently held here and the Seventh Grade Chorus, under the leadership of Miss Jean Burkhalter rendered several numbers.

Members of the Student Council presented a program on their work directed by Sandra Brinson. The Aims, Functions, Qualifications of a Good Student Council were discussed by Johnny O'Shea, Mattie Louise Randall, Bob Crosby and Harriet Smith. Mary Elizabeth Stewart then gave the aims of the Tallulah Student Council for this year.

Miss Dorothy Whittington's second grade room received the award for the highest percentage of parents present.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN D. GRANTHAM

Miss Morgan Becomes Bride Of Johnny D. Grantham

In a beautiful home ceremony early in October, Miss Frances Ann Morgan pledged her marriage vows to Johnny D. Grantham. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto F. Morgan of 306 Garden Drive. Mr. Grantham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edgar Grantham of West Monroe.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. A. J. Varnado.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, she wore a white wool dress and an orchid corsage. Her only ornament was pearl ear rings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Barbara Rogers was maid of honor. She wore a frock of blue wool with a pink carnation corsage.

Harold Davis of Mexia, Tex., served the bridegroom as best man. The candles were lighted by Mickey and Judie Varnado.

A reception followed the ceremony. In the dining room the bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a tiered wedding cake. White tapers in crystal holders were placed at either side. Miss Athene Hall and Miss Margaret Varnado, cousin of the bride assisted.

Later in the evening the young couple left on their wedding trip to the Spanish Air.

The bride is a graduate of Neville High School and attended Northeast State College.

Mr. Grantham is a graduate of Ouachita High School and attended Northeast State College until entrance to the Air Force, where he is stationed at Sacramento, California.

Two Hostesses Entertain DAR In Oak Ridge

Mrs. R. E. Barham, Sr., and Mrs. T. E. Barham were hostesses to the Abram Morehouse Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution at a business meeting on Wednesday afternoon. The Oak Ridge Community Center was decorated with roses for the gathering. Particularly distinctive was the arrangement near the flag on the president's table, of a marine bowl of white roses with a tailored bow of blue satin ribbon.

Mrs. Conrad McDuffie, regent, and Mrs. E. B. Folse, acting chaplain, opened the meeting with the ritual. Miss Lucille Huffman presented the President's General's message. She listed the honor roll requirements for the year that won for the chapter the gold star award last year. The response of the various chairmen showed that work had already begun along all of the indicated lines.

Reports were given by Mrs. Joe Davenport on the district meeting held in Ruston, and Mrs. J. B. Shackelford on the Continental Congress held last April in Washington. Miss Debbie Pinkston explained the National Defense outline for the year. Mrs. W. M. Nolan of the marker committee passed out the programs for the ceremony of dedication of the Prairie Mer Rouge Marker commemorating Abram Morehouse and Josiah Davenport to be held October 26 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. George T. Madison, state organizing secretary, told the chapter of the plans to organize new chapters in the state. Food for thought was presented in statistical form indicating territory where there are members of the D. A. R. but no chapter organization.

An enthusiastic response to the state regent's proposed project of furnishing a bedroom at Oakley Plantation was prepared for the state board meeting to be held October 27.

A surprise ceremony came as a climax to the meeting. Mrs. George T. Madison, immediate past regent, presented to the chapter a regent's pin to be worn by each succeeding regent during her term of office. Before pinning the pendant insignia on the left shoulder of Mrs. McDuffie, she explained that it was given by herself and her brothers, Joe and Thomas Davenport, in memory of their mother, Mary Moss Williams Davenport. This legend is engraved on the back of the pin. Mrs. Davenport was the organizing regent of the Abram Morehouse Chapter in Mer Rouge on November 15, 1932 and her memory is dear to the members.

Guests lingered around the attractive punch table and discussed approaching events. Among the pleasant prospects is the tea at the home of Mrs. Lewis Slater in November honoring the new members of the Fort Miro chapter.

Present were: Mrs. Weston Adams, Mrs. J. B. Shackelford, and Mrs. E. P. Zachery from Jones; Mrs. J. A. Davenport, and Miss Debbie Pinkston of Mer Rouge; Mrs. E. B. Folse, Mrs. E. L. Gladney III, and Mrs. George T. Madison of Bastrop; Mrs. B. E. Barham, Mrs. R. E. Barham, Sr., Mrs. A. B. Conger, Miss Lucille Huffman, Mrs. C. N. McDuffie, Mrs. W. M. Nolan, and Miss Ellie Traylor of Oak Ridge.

Motions Refused In Marshfield And Davis Cases

A motion by attorneys for Jay Dean Davis, who will be tried for murder beginning Nov. 3, was denied in Fourth District court yesterday. The motion asked that the state be ordered to turn over all documents which were connected with the case.

In denying the motion, Judge David I. Garrett said the defense is not entitled to all documents possessed by the state.

Three copies of each confession, however, were furnished the defense by the district attorney, as required by law.

During the discussion of the motion, District Attorney Fred Fudickar denied that the state has in its possession a "diary" reported in talk throughout town. Defense attorneys had specifically asked for the "diary," in event one existed.

Fudickar also said that no letters he had pointed directly to Adams. He made the statement when defense attorneys asked for copies of any letters which might point to perversion.

Objections to the ruling were filed by defense attorneys immediately after the ruling. Davis, who had been present at the hearing, was then returned to his cell in the parish jail.

In other action Judge Garrett also refused a motion by the attorney for Artie Marshfield, charged with illegal possession of narcotics, marijuana. The attorney was seeking a bill of particulars. A single exception to the refusal of the bill was the giving of the exact time of the arrest to defense attorneys.

As in the case of the Davis motion, the district attorney opposed the motion, charging that it would hinder the prosecution of the case when it comes up for trial. Marshfield's trial is slated for November 17.

One felony arraignment, George Grady Roberts, was brought into court and the trial set for Nov. 19. Roberts is charged on two counts of theft, one of an automobile valued at $50 and the other of $82.50 in cash.

John Deas entered a plea of not guilty to operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors and received a fine of $300 and costs of court.

One other person, Eugene McVay, was also fined $300 and costs of court for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors.

Other cases brought up were: LaVerne Ramsey, who pleaded not guilty to allowing cattle to roam at large. His trial was set for Nov. 12.

Victor Miller, simple battery, one year in the parish jail.

Henry Hebron, disturbing the peace, time served in the parish jail.

George Caldwell, reckless driving and no driver's license, six months on each count, suspended.

Other action included: Joe S. Bollman, illegal possession of a hypodermic needle, two years in the state penitentiary, subject to probation.

Charles F. Stewart, speeding, $80. James Honeycutt, charged with aggravated assault, set for Nov. 12.

James Lee Wiley, reckless driving, remanded for sentence.

Deshia Swift, disturbing the peace, 30 days in jail.

Rufus Gardner, aggravated assault, set for Oct. 29.

Charlie Reese, sentence on gambling charges suspended on payment of a fine and costs.

Business Girls Of Y. W. C. A. Join In Celebration

The Business and Professional Girls' Club of the Y. W. C. A. is joining in celebrating a silver anniversary here. Just 25 years ago the organization was established here. It has been active in furthering the enjoyment and rounding out of the lives of young working girls by providing wholesome entertainment and living conditions.

Club work is based around the Y. W. C. A. Purpose: "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of social and personal living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians. In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share his love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge of God."

Officers of the club serving for this year are Mary Riser, president; Phoebe Miller, vice-president; Aline Hall, secretary; and Mattie Sue Detro, treasurer. A supper meeting is held every other Thursday night at the Y. W. C. A. A program is planned for this night, which usually consists of a devotional and an outside speaker. An effort is made to secure speakers from varied fields, which makes our programs educational and informative as well as entertaining.

This year we have had talks on industrial development in Monroe, cancer, and the history of the Y. W. C. A. in Monroe. During the summer months plans are made for outdoor activity.

Each year a "Arkansas-Monroe, Louisiana Employed Women's Conference" is held with a different club as hostess each year. Last year the conference met in Hot Springs, Ark., and the Monroe Club was honored with Marion Simmons serving as chairman of the conference. This year the conference is being held in Fort Smith, Ark., and Maude Brownlee of the Monroe Club is serving as vice-chairman. The theme to be carried out during the conference is "A Century to Go." As the Y. W. C. A. in Monroe is celebrating its 25th anniversary, the Y. W. C. A. as a whole is celebrating its 100th anniversary.

The favorite project of all the girls in the club is the Christmas party given at the Y. W. C. A. for underprivileged children. They select children from the schools who will have no Christmas at all and bring them to the "Y" for games and the opening of gifts. The members have as much fun as the children. Plans are being made for a week end camping trip

Judging Results Given

Delta Fair Concludes Successful Five-Day Run

TALLULAH Oct. 22 (Special)—With judging completed and ribbons awarded in the final groups of adult and junior cattle and quarterhorse classes, the Louisiana Delta Fair, Friday evening wound up a successful five-day run here.

Max McDonald, county agent of Madison Parish, said that the quality of livestock exhibited at the exposition was high, and that the quarterhorse show was better than last year's.

Backing him up in this view was horse show superintendent, Austin Moore, who stated that the horses shown here this week were as good as would be found anywhere in the south. And that the show would equal or surpass the fall horse show to be held in Baton Rouge.

Friday afternoon, most of the top livestock winners at the fair were being loaded in trucks to be transported to the State Fair opening Saturday in Shreveport.

The 90 quarterhorse entries here came from Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. Cattle entries were from Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Texas and Missouri. Other fair exhibits were from the three sponsoring parishes, Tensas, Madison and East Carroll.

Results not previously reported include:

and a "go to church together" Sunday.

On October 28 open house is being held at the Y. W. C. A. in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Y. W. C. A. in Monroe. The public is cordially invited to attend. Members of the Business Girls' Club will be on hand to talk with the guests about their work and activity.

Injunction Asked In Lake Charles

LAKE CHARLES, La. —UP—City councilmen will meet Monday with members of the first district sewerage board to discuss an injunction sought against the board to prevent the collection of a five-mill sewerage maintenance tax.

Three Lake Charles real estate developers filed suit in Calcasieu district court Tuesday as "individuals" and not as officials of their companies. They are Charles Ray Gein, vice-president and manager of Southern Construction Co.; Merle E. Devine, vice-president of Coastal Development Co.; and Thomas A. Kaough, purchasing agent for Southern.

The suit contends that the election authorizing the sewerage board to collect the tax was illegal because it granted a higher tax than was allowed under the 1908 act.

Stern Dean Called 'The Bear' Halts LSU Panty Raid

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 22.—UP—A stern dean called "the Bear" and an honor guard of ROTC cadets quelled a panty raid by some 1,000 male students on the women's dormitories at Louisiana State University Thursday night.

At one point the dean turned away the raiders with just two words, "Go home!" Later he used a stern look. By then the celebrating males had also been blocked by the honor guard in full dress uniforms.

The combination was too much and the throng of male students ended their demonstration and went home almost empty handed.

The raid was expected after rival Tulane University in New Orleans staged one that police called a "riot" by 700 students, and both the police and college officials here were ready.

In the Tulane demonstration which netted the males armloads of lingerie Monday night there was scuffling and rock throwing and four students were arrested for "loud and boisterous conduct."

Police armed with tear gas rushed to the campus here in six squad cars and barricaded one road leading to the women's dormitories but had little else to do. There were no arrests and no one was reported badly hurt.

"We were just going after some panties," one student said, "when we ran up against 'the Bear.' He held up his hands and said, 'go home!' We left."

At another dormitory the throng of males found the cadet honor guard standing 30-strong in parade formation across their path, helped by a secondary defense of 50 proctors equipped with walkie-talkies.

That was too much. Despite cries of "chicken" and "we want a panty raid" from women inside the dormitory the males retreated to the parade grounds to "muster up courage," as one student put it.

Dean French strode into the crowd then numbering between 800 and 1,200 male students and broke up the demonstration without saying a word.

"The dean just walked right into the middle of us and looked at us," a student said. "We just moved on."

Dean French said afterward that the students had been told that anyone leading a panty raid would be expelled and that the women were told to lock their dormitories and lower their shades.

He said the senior ROTC students forming the honor guard were motivated for the event solely by their student leaders and not under faculty or military orders.

The cadets carried neither rifles nor clubs, but the panty raiders made no effort to break through the line. One of the proctors was punched in the nose, however.

The males complained that the women students in most of the dormitories visited were completely uncooperative and only a few of them tossed down any lingerie, the object of such raids.

Career Sailors And Marines To Meet In Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 22 (Special).—Over a thousand of Uncle Sam's career sailors and marines are converging on San Diego, Calif., for the 27th national convention of the Fleet Reserve Association, to be held here October 26-28.

These men are delegates to a convention of the only organization composed exclusively of career men of the navy and marine corps and the only organization authorized to act as their spokesman. Membership is limited to men with not less than six years active service.

Numbered on the rolls of the association are men now serving and those who have served our nation in the Spanish American War, World War I, World War II and the recent Korean conflict. In their ranks are men who served on the old square riggers as apprentices, boys and men who served with the Great White Fleet in 1908. These men will meet with their shipmates now on active duty who are qualified in handling modern electronic devices so essential to the modern navy. Some of the old China Station men present will no doubt have known today's Chinese Communist generals when the generals were ricksha boys in Shanghai, China.

Among the delegates present will

Jack Carson In New TV Role, No Longer Loutish

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jack Carson starts a new career in TV tonight and he'll be presenting a new Jack Carson.

No more the loutish blowhard who is the butt of all the jokes. He'll be playing more or less the real Carson—a big, lusty fellow with a clever, almost ironic sense of humor.

Every four weeks, Carson will occupy the NBC Friday night spot which Red Buttons has three times a month. The king-size comic will open with a shot of his San Fernando Valley ranch and then appear as himself. Then he'll ease into a sketch. Tomorrow night's will be a takeoff on "Lucy," offering the home life of a gangster. Costars: Claire Trevor, Ricardo Cortez.

"I'm going to try and do satire," Carson explained. "It's the thing I like to do best, and I don't think there's enough good satire on TV. At first we were going to do takeoffs on other shows. But then I realized I would be hurting some friend's feelings if I did. So now we're doing more general things."

"I think we have a funny approach. But of course, I can be wrong. If the show lays a bomb tomorrow night, I may change my way of thinking."

There was nothing satirical about the loud-mouth character Carson used to play in the Warner films with Dennis Morgan. Jack has been trying to cut away from those portrayals for the past few years and has just about managed it.

He went to an extreme in "A Star Is Born," in which he plays a noncomic role as the hardhearted press agent who helps put the skids under James Mason. Carson doesn't think he was a heel in the film, but others disagree. At any rate, it was a juicy enough job to get him mention for a supporting Oscar nomination, something few folks ever suspected he would garner.

The new TV deal will give him plenty of opportunity for films, and that's the way he wants it. He admits making mistakes in his first assault at the new medium four years ago. At that time, he turned all his movie bridges behind him.

"You just couldn't pass up a couple of hundred thousand for two years' work," he explained. "So I picked up and went East to live."

Personally, I thought some of his early shows were among the funniest on TV. But he got bogged down in the latter part of the 19 one-hour programs he did.

Bengals Thump Wildcats; Rams March Over Rebels

Neville Defeats Winnsboro, 20-0; Airplanes Feature

By TED HECKATHORN

The Neville Tigers used seven passes, five of their own, and two of Winnsboro's, to defeat the Wildcats 20-0 last night at Neville Stadium.

After a scoreless first period, featured by Tiger defensive stands after the Wildcats had penetrated to their ten and twelve, the Bengals took to the air midway in the second quarter, and completed five consecutive aerials, good for a total of 71 yards and a touchdown.

Quarterback Elton Upshaw, the smooth-operating Tiger T-specialist, was on the tossing end of every pass, which were completed in succession to end Tom Causey, back Botsy McClanahan, end C. W. Statham, and back Mickey Vergen, with the final 18-yard paydirt aerial being taken by Tom in the end zone for the tally.

The two Winnsboro passes, turned into quick six-pointers by the alert Neville eleven, both were in the final stanza. The first came when Tiger speedster Spec Lewis intercepted a Dave Jones pass on the Wildcat 20, and ripped off the distance unmolested.

The next came shortly afterwards, when Neville linebacker Dick Sells gathered in a Jones heave on the Winnsboro 35 and bulled his way to the five for a 30-yard dash that was mostly plough-style, with half a dozen Wildcat tacklers being dragged along. Billy King plunged over on the next play, and kicked his second fourth quarter placement for the point.

Jones, Johnnie Boutwell, and Chuck Gordy carried most of the offensive load for the visitors, with Jones and Gordy breaking loose for the two longest runs of the evening, 27 and 25 yards respectively. Jimmie Riser and Ralph Gill were the defensive standouts for the losers.

For Neville, Statham, Jerry Torrains, Bobby Johnson, Pat Aderson, Ray Gambino and Sells were the defensive stalwarts; while King and Lewis, with their steam-roller runs, and Upshaw, who completed six of eight passes, were outstanding on offense.

The lineup:

Neville
Ends: Statham, T. Causey, Freund, Ledoux, Bassett, Brinson.
Tackles: Arant, Torrains, Smith, Keith, Webb, Vickers, Stephens.
Guards: Johnson, Anderson, Gambino, Hinton, Parrino, Stevens, Hooson.
Centers: Sells, Peden.
Backs: Upshaw, McClanahan, Lewis, Reeves, King, Yergor, Kitchens, Dupuy, W. Causey, Boyd, Jones, Thomas, Kirby, Seabery, Winnsboro.

Ends: Riser, Lipins, Henry, Walker, Temple.
Tackles: McGraw, Garbin, Dunn, Cheek.
Guards: Parker, Rogers, Eubanks.
Center: Gill.
Backs: Dave Jones, Boutwell, Mock, Gordy, Guise, Carter, Denon, Jones.

Officials
Referee: McBeth, Umpire: Wherlon, field judge: Butler, head lines man: Green, timer: Bendel.

N. Y. Racing To Jamaica From Belmont Today

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. — Racing shifts from Belmont to Jamaica tomorrow for the final 26 days of the 196-day New York season, and when 24 fillies and mares were entered for the $25,000-added Correction Handicap the race was split into two divisions.

E. P. Taylor's Canadian-bred Canadiana, who won the Vagrancy Handicap at Aqueduct last month, tops the first division under 123 pounds. H. J. O'Shea's Good Call, a star from the Chicago tracks, is high weighted in the second division with 118 pounds.

The Correction is over the six-furlong route. With 11 starters in the first section the purse will gross $28,825. If 10 start in the second division, it will hit $28,575.

Davidson Feels Might Of Sicily Island, 39 To 7

SICILY ISLAND, La., Oct. 22 (Special)—The Sicily Island Tigers, headed for their first district Class B football championship, blasted Davidson High of St. Joseph, 39-7, here tonight for their fourth conference victory. The unbeaten Islanders, now winners of six this season, have only Block of Jonesville remaining in the way of finally sewing up the crown.

B. K. Miller and Fay Thurman, among the district's leading scorers, led the Tiger scoring parade once more. Miller bagged three touchdowns on runs of 11, 21, and 64 yards. Thurman scored two touchdowns on dashes of six and 44 yards, and also added three conversions in six attempts. Billy Wiggins got loose on one Island touchdown jaunt of 32 yards on a reverse.

Miller now has tallied 14 touchdowns for 84 points this season. Thurman has five touchdowns and converted 18 times for 49 points. Davidson got its lone touchdown in the third quarter on a 46-yard pass-and-run play. Wayne Spruill to Dale Hoover. Hoover also converted.

Davidson 0 0 7 0—7

Waterproof Tags Marksville With 12 To 0 Setback

WATERPROOF, La., Oct. 22 (Special)—The Waterproof Tigers shook off the shackles and erased the tag of "hapless" tonight by storming Class A Marksville, 12-0, for the Bengals' second grid triumph of the season against four losses.

J. D. Stockstill and Neil Fletcher scored the Waterproof touchdowns, Stockstill counting on a two-yard sneak in the second quarter, and Fletcher scooted 22 yards for the rest in the third period on the first play after the Tigers had pounced on a Marksville fumble.

Don MacGhee, Fletcher, Stockstill, Leroy Hendricks, Buddy Miller and George Taylor played particularly outstanding ball for Waterproof.

Carroll Bounces Bogalusa Rivals To Tune Of 14-0

The Carroll High Bulldogs, unbeaten in 27 games, won their 25th victory in the string that includes a tie when they knocked over the Spartans of Bogalusa, 14-0, here last night.

Carroll, defending state champions of Negro high school football, saw a scoreless first half before shaking Joe Louis loose for a third quarter touchdown. Jackson ran for the conversion and also tallied the next touchdown in the fourth quarter. Long converted behind Jackson's 10.

The Spartans made it a nine-and-a-half battle all the way, several times advancing within the shadow of the Canine goal only to be repulsed.

Arkansas, Ole Miss Head Southern Football Card

By WILL GRIMSLEY
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Possible prime bowl bids and the prestige of high national rank are prizes which make Columbus, Los Angeles and Little Rock the football capitals of the nation today.

At Columbus, Ohio, two unbeaten-united giants of the Big Ten—Wisconsin, No. 2 ranked nationally, and Ohio State, No. 4—clash in a game which midwest observers figure points the way to the conference championship and the lush Rose Bowl assignment.

The other end of the Pasadena bowl axis conceivably could be determined at Los Angeles where Southern California, the favorite, meets California in the highlight of the Pacific Coast campaign.

UCLA, the dominant power on the coast and the country's No. 3 team, is ineligible to return to the bowl, as it is the Big Ten's Michigan State, under the no-repeat rules of the arrangement.

Little Rock, deep in the Razorback country, is the neutral site of an inter-conference battle between two other undefeated eleven-both with definite bowl aspirations—Mississippi and Arkansas.

Mississippi, fifth-ranked, has designs on the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans while seventh-ranked Arkansas, surprise conqueror of Texas Christian, Baylor and Texas on successive week-ends, has its eyes on the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

By an odd pre-season arrangement born of desperation, the Razorbacks could knock Ole Miss out of the Sugar Bowl by scoring a victory, but the Mississippians can't hurt Arkansas' Southwest Conference record.

Unable to schedule the required six Southeast Conference games, Mississippi was permitted to count to Arkansas a league test, Mississippi rules a 7½ point favorite.

Most of the other teams in the select top ten circle have relatively easy assignments which should not endanger their high status. An exception is unbeaten Minnesota, No. 8, which invades Michigan a bare touchdown favorite in their traditional "Little Brown Jug" series.

Top-ranked Oklahoma has another breather in Kansas State at Norman, Okla. UCLA is at Oregon State, which has been able to win only one of its four games. Notre Dame, No. 6, is idle.

Army's speedy, quick-hitting Cadets, buoyed by an impressive victory over Duke, are three-touchdown favorites over Columbia at New York. West Virginia, unbeaten and untied, is a heavy choice over Virginia Military Academy at Bluefield, West Va.

Army is ninth-ranked and West Virginia, winner over Penn State a week ago, is No. 10.

The arm-chair quarterbacks will get to see one of three games on their television screens, depending on geographical location. It's part of the American Broadcasting Company's regional scheme.

New England fans can tune in on the Boston University-Holy Cross game at Worcester, Mass., starting at 1 p.m. (EST). The Pacific Coast viewers may see the Montana-Brigham Young conflict at 4 p.m., this game blanketing an area from Denver, Colo., to the Pacific Coast.

The rest of the nation—Midwest, East, South and Southwest—gets a look at what could be a topflight contest between resurging Pittsburgh, which upset Navy a week ago, and Northwestern at Pittsburgh. The time is 1:25 p.m. (CST).

A crowd of $2,500 is expected to attend the Wisconsin-Ohio State head-butting at Columbus. Wisconsin's attack features a battering ram of a fullback named Alan (The Horse) Ameche while Ohio State's chief attacking weapon is a talented redhead named Hopalong Cassidy.

A few interesting intersectional encounters dot the grid map. Penn State jumps down to Texas to play Texas Christian while another Texas team, Southern Methodist, is host to Kansas. Navy tries to bounce back at Philadelphia against Penn, which has suffered four straight defeats. Fordham plays at Marquette.

The highlight in the East is the game at New Haven, Conn., between Yale and Colgate, both unbeaten. The South's feature is Kentucky at Georgia Tech. Texas and Rice come to grips in the main conference attraction in the Southwest in Unbeaten Colorado is host to Nebraska in a Big Seven headliner.

Other top games:
East—Temple at Brown, Cornell at Princeton, Dartmouth at Harvard, Springfield at Boston College.

Midwest—Iowa at Indiana, Iowa State at Missouri, Purdue at Michigan State, Xavier (O.) at Cincinnati.

South—Mississippi State at Alabama, Florida State at Auburn, Dayton at Tennessee, Georgia at Tulane, Wake Forest at North Carolina, Virginia vs. Virginia Tech at Roanoke, Florida at Louisiana State, Duke at North Carolina State.

Southwest and Far West—Texas A&M at Baylor, Hardin-Simmons vs. Oklahoma A&M at Odessa, Tex., Idaho at Washington State, San Jose at Oregon, Texas Tech at Colgate of the Pacific, Washington at Stanford, Arizona at New Mexico, Utah at Wyoming.

Southwest and Far West—Texas A&M at Baylor, Hardin-Simmons vs. Oklahoma A&M at Odessa, Tex., Idaho at Washington State, San Jose at Oregon, Texas Tech at Colgate of the Pacific, Washington at Stanford, Arizona at New Mexico, Utah at Wyoming.

Lake Providence Panthers Thump Oak Grove, 28-0

OAK GROVE, La., Oct. 22 (Special)—The Lake Providence Panthers tallied at least one touchdown in every period here tonight to hand the Oak Grove Tigers a 28-0 defeat in a Class A conference battle.

Bubba Minsky broke the game open with a 20-yard touchdown in the first quarter, which also saw a Panther safety when Lake Providence recovered an Oak Grove fumble in the end zone.

Harold Thomas scored from one yard out in the second period to give the Panthers a 15-0 edge at the half. Minsky turned in a spectacular 75-yard touchdown run in the third period, and McCurdy counted the final TD on a four-yard end run. Robert Earle converted twice for the Panthers.

Kent Caston showed fine defensive play for the invaders.

Score by quarters:
Lake Providence 9 6 7 6—28
Oak Grove 0 0 0 0—0

Guarantees Saxton $50,000 To Defend

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22. — Sid Flaherty, manager of Maurice Harper, Oakland, Calif., said Friday he would guarantee $50,000 to Johnny Saxton of New York if he will fight Harper in San Francisco for the world welterweight title.

Saxton lifted the crown from Kid Gavilan Wednesday.

The Saxton-Harper match would hinge on Harper winning over Del Flanagan of Minneapolis, rated No. 2 welter contender, in their fight here next Wednesday. Flanagan won recently over Saxton.

Brodnax Steers Bastrop Eleven To 34 To 0 Win

By JOHN EARL TAYLOR

Led by J. W. "Red" Brodnax, who scored four touchdowns, the Bastrop Rams remained in the undefeated column of triple-A ball by topping West Monroe's Rebels 34-0 here last night in a game played at Brown Stadium.

Bastrop's first touchdown, late in the third quarter came after an initial set up of a pass from halfback Ronnie Johnson to Sherwood White on West Monroe's 30 yard line. Brodnax, in an off tackle play, scored on a 30-yard run. Bill Loftin's conversion was good making the score, 7-0.

West Monroe fumbled on the following kickoff but recovered. A pass from Robert Perkins intended for Adams, was intercepted by Bob McGough and carried to the 38. Johnson, on the next play, carried to the 28 from where McGough smashed through the center for Bastrop's second touchdown. Loftin's kick for the extra point was good.

Early in the third quarter Perkins stirred West Monroe's hopes by connecting with a pass to halfback Billy Hughes for a 30-yard gain.

In the following four downs Bastrop held West Monroe to a standstill and forced the Rebels to punt from their own 35. Brodnax took the punt and was dropped by Bruce Lee on the 31. On the next play Johnston carried for 20 yards, being stopped by Malcolm Bass. Storm, clicking off a first down on the next play, set the ball on the 30. Repeated drives by McGough and Johnson brought the ball to rest on the 10. Brodnax, on a left end run, scored the third Bastrop touchdown. Again Loftin converted.

West Monroe, making a desperate bid to stay in the game, resorted to aerial tactics but weren't able to connect on the passes. Halftime ended with a pass interception by Bastrop in which two handoffs were staged and almost resulted in another TD for the Rams.

Seven plays after opening the third quarter, Brodnax romped around left end from the five after a series of ground plays by the Rams had brought the ball deep in West Monroe territory. Loftin's kick was good making the score 28-0.

West Monroe, on the next chain of plays after taking the ball on their 20, lost ten yards and had to kick. Thompson booted to the 38 yard line where Johnston was downed. In next play Brodnax was stopped by Vincent Marzula. A host of West Monroe players trapped Johnston back of the line on the next play but Johnston had revenge by romping back on the next play with a 36-yard run which set up initial play for Bastrop's last touchdown in the game. Brodnax scored on an off tackle play, once again. Loftin missed the following conversion.

Again, as before, West Monroe began to resort to the air route in an endeavor to score. A total of ten passes were thrown in the last half without a completion.

West Monroe's offense and defense against the Bastrop regulars early in the third quarter showed more strength than at any other time in the game.

Unbeaten Delhi Beats Rayville By 12-6 Margin

RAYVILLE, La., Oct. 22 (Special)—The undefeated Delhi Bears, scoring on a 60-yard run in the second quarter, and a 50-yard dash after a pass in the fourth, defeated the Rayville Hornets here tonight, 12-6.

The Hornets tallied in the first period, when George Greer sneaked over from the four, to give Rayville a 6-0 lead.

Delhi's George Sumlin broke loose for 60 yards and a six-pointer in the second quarter, and after a short aerial to the same end, and the speedy halfback went 50 yards for the winning marker.

Rayville, which chalked up seven first downs to Delhi's five, threatened twice late in the fourth stanza, once to the 15 and once to the 18, but couldn't push it over.

Flyweight Champ's Pilot Denies Report

TOKYO, Saturday, Oct. 23. —The manager of world flyweight champion Yohio Shirai denied tonight a London report that a preliminary agreement had been reached for a title bout with Dai Dower of Wales.

In London, boxing promoter Jack Solomon said the Saperstein of New York, described as an adviser to Shirai, had recommended to Shirai's manager acceptance of Solomon's terms.

Dr. Alvin Cahn, Shirai's manager, said Saperstein is not authorized to make matches for Shirai. He reported he had not yet received Solomon's offer relayed by Saperstein.

For six home games of the 1953 National Football League season the Detroit Lions averaged 52.591 fans. Briggs Stadium's seating capacity is 52,853.

Harrison Holds 3-Stroke Lead In Aussie Tourney

SYDNEY, Australia, Oct. 22. —America's E. J. "Dutch" Harrison shot a one-over-par 73 today to hold a three-stroke lead in the 72-hole Ampol Golf Tournament, with one round to play.

The shaggy-haired St. Louis professional had a 54-hole total of 215—three strokes better than the score of little Norman Von Nida, the Australian tourist, who had a third round 72.

Harrison's two teammates, Marty Furgol and Tommy Bolt, slipped farther out of the picture. Furgol had a 77 for 225 and Bolt a 76 for 226. Par for the Lakes course is 72.

Outside of Von Nida, only two other golfers, both Australians, apparently have a chance of overtaking Harrison. Ossie Pickworth, the Australian Open champion, had a 73 for 219. Kel Nagle had 74 for 220.

Melbourne's Peter Thomson, the British Open champion, shot his best round of the tournament a 73, but his aggregate of 228 placed him far back in the list.

Ed Furgol, the United States Open champion who is not related to Marty, will leave Sunday for America. Furgol had no withdraw because of a ruptured vein in his right arm. His left arm is withered, ten inches shorter than his right.

Ed Furgol's place will be taken by either Chandler Harper or Dave Douglas, two other American pros, in the international golf matches scheduled here later.

Patterson Gets Nod In Joe Gannon Bout

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. —Floyd Patterson fighting an ever-onward battle in his eagerness to make his Madison Square Garden debut a smashing success, won an unanimous eighth round decision over Joe Gannon, a Rocky Marciano sparring partner, dropping the ex-Washington cop at the final bell. Patterson weighed 170½, heaviest of his career, Gannon 174.

Jonesboro-Hodge Suffers 21 To 14 Beating By Jena

JONESBORO, La., Oct. 22 (Special)—The Jena Giants added to their prestige as a contender for double-A championship honors here tonight by tripping the Jonesboro-Hodge Tigers 21 to 14. Although each is in a different conference, the game was tagged as a conference contest to help round out the necessary league games in order to be eligible for title contention.

Jonesboro-Hodge got away fast with all its points in the first quarter as Ronnie Briehn counted on jaunts of 46 and 18 yards. James Bond converted both times for the Tigers.

Ronald Manchester tied up the game for Jena with a 64-yard touchdown run in the first period, and a five-yard dash in the second, followed by conversions by Richard Bridges.

Bridges applied the clincher in the third quarter when he broke away on a 46-yard touchdown trip and followed with his third conversion of the night.

Score by quarters:
Jena 7 7 7 0—21
Jonesboro 14 0 0 0—14

Hurricanes Spoil Maryland's Bowl Aspirations, 9-7

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 22. —An angry Miami football team, its bowl hopes blasted by an N. C. A. A. decree, virtually killed the post-season ambitions of another team, Maryland, by slashing to a 9-7 victory over the favored Terps here tonight.

Miami's Hurricanes, seven-point underdogs, played the massive Maryland team off its feet and not until the final four minutes, when their hopes were virtually dead, did the Terps finally launch a drive that put Dick Bielecki across for their only touchdown.

Bob Nolan made a great leaping catch of a 21-yard touchdown pass from Mario Bonafiglio in the last 10 seconds of the first half and Johnny Bow's conversion sent Miami into the intermission with a 7-0 margin.

In the third, with Maryland pinned back a yard from its goal, the Hurricanes nailed down the winning points when Bob Nolan and Jack Losch burst through to knock down Ronnie Waller behind his goal line for a safety.

Three Texas League baseball teams — Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio — trained in Florida last spring.

Tech, Northwestern Clash Today In State Fair Tilt

High-Flying Imps Have Fine Morale On Eve Of Battle

NATCHITOCHES, La., Oct. 22 (Special)—Northwestern's high-flying Imps began tapering off today in preparation for their titanic battle with the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs Saturday at the State Fair opening in Shreveport. The clash is slated to get underway at 2:30 p.m., following a parade and pep rally by students of both schools.

A huge caravan of Demon supporters will trek to Shreveport to cheer on the team in their quest of a victory over Tech for the second time since 1942. Spirit is running high on the N. S. C. campus over the coming game, and head football coach Harry Turpin said the morale of his charges is good. He agreed that the team will definitely be "up" for the encounter with Tech.

The team will be without the services of its workhorse halfback, Clyde Chesson, who was injured in the Louisiana College game. Also injured, but expected to see limited action against Tech, is end Earl Haynes. Haynes suffered a body injury in the Southeast Oklahoma game last Saturday.

Coach Turpin echoed the sentiment of a number of local fans when he commented that this will be a great game. He went on to state that "the team that fights to the end will win this game."

Demon fans will be depending upon the stellar Purple and White backfield to provide a scoring punch in the game Saturday but it will be up to the line to keep on opening holes in the Tech defense. In the line, Coach Turpin will probably start the following boys. At the terminals will be Ted Simon and Earl Haynes at 190 pounds each. At the tackle slot is Charley Johnson and Bill Harris. Together these boys total 410 pounds of Demon. At the guard posts will be 200-pound Bob Tatum and 179-pound Alan Langridge. Starting at the pivot spot is a 190-pounder in the person of Dudley Downing. This rounds the line to an average of 193 pounds per man.

In the backfield, the weight average drops quite a bit due to the starting presence of a 141-pound halfback, Raymond Bates. He pulls the average down to 163 pounds per man. The other "little" man in the N. S. C. backfield is James McNew, 150-pound field general of the Demons. Don Miller will be running from the other halfback slot, weighing in at 165 pounds. The power man for the Demons is Searle Walton, 196-pound fullback.

Crowd Of 35,000 Expected To See Gator, Tiger Tilt

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 22 (Special)—Favored Florida, undefeated in Southeastern Conference play, meets a rejuvenated Louisiana State University team here tomorrow night in a game expected to draw 35,000 fans.

LSU won its first game of the season last week, rolling over previously undefeated Texas Tech while Florida downed Kentucky for its third SEC victory and its second over an opponent that has beaten LSU.

Coach Gaynell Tinsley will be without the services of first string tackle Gary Dildy, a mainstay in the front wall all year. Dildy broke a hand in the Texas Tech game and will be out indefinitely.

Coach Bob Woodruff will have regular fullback Mal Hammack on the bench and possibly Joe Brodsky, his understudy. Both are nursing injuries, but Brodsky is showing improvement and is listed as a starter.

LSU could reverse its worst start in history and salvage much from the season with a victory. Unpredictable when favored, but stubborn as underdogs, LSU always has been a good rebound outfit. Florida, a dark horse contender for conference honors despite losses to Clemson and Rice, could catch the eye of bowl selectors with a rattling win over LSU's usually luckless Tigers. Florida never has beaten LSU, but this is only their fourth meeting.

Kickoff is scheduled for 8 p.m. TRIGO OVER AGOSTINI BRISBANE, AUSTRALIA, Oct. 22 (AP)—Mario Trigo, 137½, of Mexico City, outpointed Amerigo Agostini, 137, of Italy, in a 10-round boxing match tonight. Trigo floored the Italian in the first with a right to the chin.

Injuries Hurting Bulldog Chances To Claim Victory

RUSTON, La., Oct. 22 (Special)—Despite several injuries that still linger on, Louisiana Tech's football team was in high spirits today as it went through the final practice session before taking on Northeast State in Shreveport Saturday afternoon.

The two teams meet on the opening day of the State Fair for their 15th annual battle in the Fair Stadium.

"We were almost afraid to touch each other in practice sessions this week," commented Tech's head coach Joe Aillet whose team has been hard hit by injuries all season. "We don't want any more men out for this tough game with the Demons Saturday."

At last count in the Canine camp it was found that two injured men will definitely be out for the Saturday game and one or two others are on the doubtful list.

Two players unable to play in the contest Saturday are halfback Bud McMichael, Tech's good punter who has an injured hip, and center Vic Perry, out with a broken hand.

On the question mark list is Tech's good quarterback, Milford Andrews. Hurt in the Howard Payne game last week, he has been limping this week with a bad ankle. It will probably be Saturday before it will be known if he will see any action in the tilt.

Fullback James Oliver and halfback A. L. Williams, two Techsters out for the last several weeks with broken hands, are due to be ready for the game and their return will give the Bulldogs' backfield a little more depth.

Tech's starting lineup for the battle will depend to a great extent on how the injuries shape up by Saturday. Probable starters in the backfield will be quarterback, Milford Andrews, Delhi, or Pete McCulley, Baton Rouge; halfbacks, Russell Rainbolt, Rayville, and Gayle Dick, Cotton Valley; and fullback, James Oliver, Bossier City or Benji Smith, Ruston.

Starters in Tech's line will likely be center, Charles Glover, Shreveport; guards, Jesse Storts, Lake Charles, and Pat Hinton, Ruston; tackles, Buster Linn, Benson, and Jack Baugh, Monroe; ends, Gordon Brown, Ruston, and Ken Bates, West Monroe.

Ole Miss 7-Point Favorite To Stop Arkansas' Clock

By RAY STEPHENS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 22 (AP)—There's a possibility that rain will be falling tomorrow afternoon when the universities of Arkansas and Mississippi match their undefeated football teams in one of the nation's top games.

The U. S. Weather Bureau here today forecast cloudy skies with widely scattered thundershowers for the contest, which begins at 2 p.m. in Little Rock's War Memorial Stadium.

A wet field likely would work to the advantage of the Arkansas razorbacks, who are 7-point underdogs to the powerful Ole Miss club.

Arkansas runs its offense from the single wing, which requires much less ball handling than does Ole Miss' split T formation. And, Arkansas has built something of a reputation in recovering fumbles. In their four games to date, the Razorbacks have grabbed 12 of 16 fumbles by their opponents.

Both teams enter the game with clean 1954 records. Arkansas has beaten Tulsa 41-0, Baylor 21-20, Texas Christian 20-13, and Texas 20-7 in its climb to the top of the Southwest Conference.

Mississippi which leads the Southeast Conference, has topped North Texas State 35-12, Kentucky 28-9, Villanova 52-0, and Vanderbilt 28-9.

The Associated Press ranks Ole Miss No. 5 in the nation, and puts Arkansas in the No. 7 spot.

Mississippi's crushing ground-air attack led by quarterback Eagle Day and fullback Bobby McCool, is the nation's best, and probably accounts for the Rebel's role as the favorite.

Arkansas relies offensively on the running of fullback Henry Moore and halfback Buddy Benson, and the passing of tailback George Walker.

A standing-room only crowd of 35,000 or more is expected to jam the stadium. Only end zone seats still are available, and 3,000 reserve seats already have been sold.

231 Men, 47 Women To Pan-Am Games

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—The United States Olympic Association said today a delegation of 231 men and 47 women would be sent to the Pan American games at Mexico City March 12-26.

The largest single unit will be that of the track team, numbering 30, followed by the rowers, numbering 27. The women's team will consist of 16 swimmers.

Monroe Sand and Gravel No. 2 won three points out of four from Bucyrus-Erie to take the lead with Moore bowling a 181 game and 495 series for the Sand and Gravel boys, while Canizaro came through for the dragline boys with 192 game and 469 series.

C.S.C. Ammonia won three points from Southwest Gas, with Glenn rolling a 181 game and 498 series for Ammonia while Smith with Southwest Gas bowled 197 game and 501 series, to hold 3rd place.

Monroe Sand and Gravel No. 1 and three points from Southern Equipment to come up from seventh to fourth place with Fruge rolling 186 game and 451 series.

Bill Bailey, rolling a 175 game, and Danc, 491 series, led Equipment.

C.S.C. Dixsol beat Falstaff Beer three games for all four points to get themselves from eighth to sixth place as Harrod rolled a 210 game and 477 series. The loser Rainwater rolled a 185 game and 456 series.

Foremost Dairy won three points from Standard Office Supply, with Bozard, one of the dairy boys, rolling a 169 and 467 series. The Standard Office Supply team had Davies with a 177 game and 503 series to help them get the one point.

Bulldog, Demon Contest Heading Gulf's Program

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In one of the top rivalries in the Gulf States Conference football, Northwestern State and Louisiana State and Louisiana Tech will risk their perfect records Saturday.

The two teams will have their annual clash at the Louisiana State Fair in Shreveport, and the game may play a key role in determining the GSC championship.

Last year's Northwestern victory set up a three-way tie for the title, with Northwestern, Tech and Southeastern involved.

Northwestern has a perfect record in five games, but has not met one of the top GSC teams yet. Tech has been beaten only by Mississippi Southern, and has won three contests.

The only other conference game scheduled is Northeast State at McNeese State. Both teams are seeking their first victory.

Southeastern goes to Arkansas State and Louisiana College is host to Livingston (Ala.) State in non-conference games. Northwestern Louisiana Institute is idle.

Northwestern State is second only to unbeaten Southeastern in team offense and defense. Northwestern builds its attack around the running of fullback Searle Walton and feet halfback Don Miller.

The tough Northwestern line is sparked by thrice all-GSC guard Bob Tatum.

Tech looked sharp in knocking Howard Payne from the unbeaten list last week. Tech used a balanced offense, featuring the running of Russell Rainbolt.

Southeastern is a stout favorite over Arkansas State. Southeastern conquered Mississippi Southern 13-7 last week and earlier won 32-0 over SLI which defeated Arkansas State 36-2 last week.

Louisiana College, which has shown tremendous improvement in its last two games, faces a team which has been strong in the past. It is Livingston's first GSC invasion of the year, however, and the teams have met no mutual foes.

McNeese features a tough offense, with fullback Ed Cormier and halfback Jesse Castelle. The defense, however, has been porous. Northeast, with an almost new team, has looked better in each game and could be tough if the youngsters can avoid mistakes.

Moore To Meet M'Bride Nov. 8 In Non-Title Go

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore will meet Archie McBride of Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8 in a non-title, over-the-weight fight at St. Nicholas Arena.

Promoter Tex Sullivan announced the lineup today for that and two other Monday night shows.

Nov. 15—Lulu Perez of Brooklyn vs. Danny Joe Perez, of New York, lightweights, 10 rounds.

Nov. 29—Ramon Tiscareno, Los Angeles, vs. Gerald Dreyer, Los Angeles, welterweights, 10 rounds.

The Nov. 29 fight is a rematch of the bout which ended in a controversial Dreyer victory last Monday night when Tiscareno was disqualified in the first round on the three-knockdown rule.

Northeast Plays McNeese Tonight At Lake Charles

Northeast State's win-hungry Indians leave this morning for Lake Charles where tonight they go into the Lake Charles High School stadium to meet the equally win-anxious Cowboys of McNeese State at 8 o'clock.

Louisiana's two newest state colleges, both yet seeking their places in the Gulf States Conference sun, will meet on fairly equal terms with the Cowboys holding about a four-point edge over McNeese's Indians. Last year McNeese State came to Monroe and surprised everyone by a decisive 38-6 victory over Northeast State.

It was surprising, because up to that point the Cowboys had an unhealthy season. At halftime last year the Indians held McNeese to a 13-6 stand, but the Cowboys came out very strong in the last half to score three more touchdowns and rack up their strong win.

McNeese State, like the local Indians, is still seeking its first 1954 Conference win. In this respect one team should get out of the conference goose-egg column tonight, unless they tie. McNeese, however, has met three of the conference's strongest squads—Louisiana Tech, Northwestern, and Louisiana College.

The football fortunes of McNeese this year are not at its highest flow, due to the loss last year of 13 veterans. Like Northeast State, the Cowboys are rebuilding. Most of the serious losses occurred in the line where two ends, four guards and three centers departed. The Cowboys lost two All-Conference men, Calvin Billings, 1953 All-Conference center, graduated, M. K. Woolbert, a two-time All-Conference tackle, is enrolled in school this year, but is not playing football.

Unlike the Northeast, however, McNeese does have a fairly generous sprinkling of lettermen returning, despite their losses. Of their 16 returning lettermen, four are ends, including two year regular Marvin Kohler, and Roy Price, an offensive standout and extra point specialist. Oliver Knox and Bobby Mills round out the returning ends.

Despite losses at tackle, the Cowboys have 1953 returnees Ed Wiley, a 250-pound sophomore transfer from Koger Junior College; and Sonny Peveo, a former All-American high school tackle from Sulphur. The Cowboys are well set up at guard, where Northeast State is weakest, with four returning lettermen. Center is Coach Ratcliff's biggest difficulty, in that he has no returning veterans. In that post is filled by Drew Spencer, a transfer student from the University of Houston.

There are five returning lettermen in the McNeese backfield. At quarterback in their T-offense is Max Jones, one of last year's signal callers. Jesse Castelle, elected last year as the most valuable Cowboy back, is leading the Lake Charles team's attack again this season. Running with him at halfback are Richard Breux and Charlie Reeves. Breux is the McNeese brokenfield runner who boasts lots of speed. At fullback will be Ed Cormier, top ground gainer on the Pokes eleven last year.

Northeast is looking to its stand-by performers for its first season win. The team has not changed much in its lineup since the first of the season. Jimmy Bradley, now the top offensive star with a total of 361 yards gained from scrimmage, through the air, and by kick returns, has virtually taken over the left halfback starting assignment. Otherwise there is little change in the Indian backfield.

Pete Chambliss or Danny Hoak will start at quarterback with both splitting most of the duties. Bradley will be at left halfback. Sonny Dozier, a 150-pound freshman from Delhi, may start at right halfback in place of Tommy Leos, but both will see plenty of the game. Fullback alternates among Howdy Nugent, Mack Powell, who has gained more yards rushing from scrimmage than any other Indian, and Clay Cox.

The line will be flanked by Don Andrews, whose two pass-catchery touchdowns and two points after touchdowns give him the title of leading scorer for the Indians; and Pete Collins or Jarrel Busby. Tackles will be as usual Captain Francis "Red" Yocom and Sherrod McKoin. These two have handled 95 per cent of the Indians' tackle job this year. Yocom has not missed one second of play and McKoin has been out very little. Guard will be played by C. J. Melancon and Bob Windle. At center will be big Sammy Moore, who has been very capable at the pivot this year for the Tribe.

Injuries Are Fatal For Earl Whitehill

OMAHA, Oct. 22 (AP)—Earl Whitehill, 54, a leading left-handed pitcher in the major leagues from 1923 through 1939, died at a hospital here today. Whitehill, a sporting goods salesman since leaving baseball, was injured in a two-car automobile collision here last Saturday.

A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he broke into the major leagues with Detroit and later played with Washington and Cleveland of the American League. He ended his career with the Chicago National League club. In 1933 he won 22 games and lost eight while with Washington.

Dawson Out Rest Of Year; Hamilton To Guide Panthers

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22 (AP)—Lowell (Red) Dawson, Pitt's ailing football coach, stepped out for the balance of the season today and the university immediately named Athletic Director Tom Hamilton to fill the post.

Dawson, who entered the hospital 10 days ago with an "Heart irregularity," told Hamilton he would be unable to continue his duties this fall. Dawson left the hospital today.

Dr. Richard Horn, Dawson's physician, said Dawson may be able to work with the team in an advisory or consultant capacity later in the season.

But an informed source said, "Red is a sick man. He's improved but he'll need an extended rest. He looks tired and worn out."

Said Hamilton: "We're all sorry to hear that Red will have to stay on the sidelines, but his staff and I will carry on to the best of our ability."

Dawson entered the hospital after Pitt lost the first three games by embarrassing scores with a team faltered one of the best in the east.

Hamilton, who was Pitt's interim coach in 1951, promptly took over the Panthers and directed them to a 21-19 upset victory over Navy last week.

Before entering the hospital, Dawson got himself into hot water with the press by failing to show up for two luncheons. The Pittsburgh newspapers immediately began yelling for his scalp.

During the Minnesota game, fans displayed a large sign reading: "So Long Red."

This is Dawson's last season on a three-year contract. His health, alumni pressure, reports of dissension on the Pitt coaching staff all could play an important part in determining if Dawson returns to the helm next season.

Patty Berg Top Cash Collector In Ladies' Golf

CHICAGO, Oct. 22 (AP)—Patty Berg has clinched the 1954 money-winning title of the Ladies' Professional Golf Association, with earnings of $16,011.

Bye Zaharias, winner of the year's Vare Trophy for 66 rounds, is next to Patty in cash-collecting with $14,452, followed by Louise Suggs with $12,736.

Only one more tournament remains on the L. P. G. A. schedule, the Texas Open, Oct. 25-28, which carries a $500 first prize.

Other leaders include Betty Jamson with $3,619; Betsy Rawls with $3,152; Betty Dodd with $6,077; and Fay Crocker with $5,270.

Miss Suggs finished just behind Mrs. Zaharias in the now-ended Vare competition with 75.57 strokes per round for 60 rounds. Louise leads in the Sebrin "Competition of the year" race in which points are awarded for finishing no poorer than fifth in tournaments. Miss Suggs has 51.5 points, one more than Mrs. Zaharias.

Mrs. Nash Wins Muny's 'Ladies Day' Golf Meet

Mrs. Dot Nash, with a low gross of 45, won yesterday's "Ladies day" tournament at Municipal Golf Club here as the women tuned up for the opening of qualifying play for the annual Twin City Ladies Championship tournament opening on the Muny course Sunday week.

Low net yesterday went to Ann Higdon, and Mrs. L. N. Copes won the low puts award, needing only 15.

Others participating were Mrs. Helen Campbell, Mrs. Doris Harbuck, Mrs. Lorraine McMahon, Mrs. Margaret Davis, Mrs. Anna Cook and Mrs. Helen Wheeler. The event will also be conducted next Friday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock.

Qualifying for the Twin City tournament begins today and runs through next Saturday.

Wave Honors Dalrymple At Georgia Game Today

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22 (AP)—Tulane and Georgia meet here in a Southeastern Conference football game tomorrow, but the man of the day will be a Greenie great of nearly a quarter century ago.

Jerry Dalrymple, one of the greatest ends ever developed at Tulane, and captain of the team that journeyed to the 1932 Rose Bowl, will be honored by an expected 20,000 for his selection to the football hall of fame.

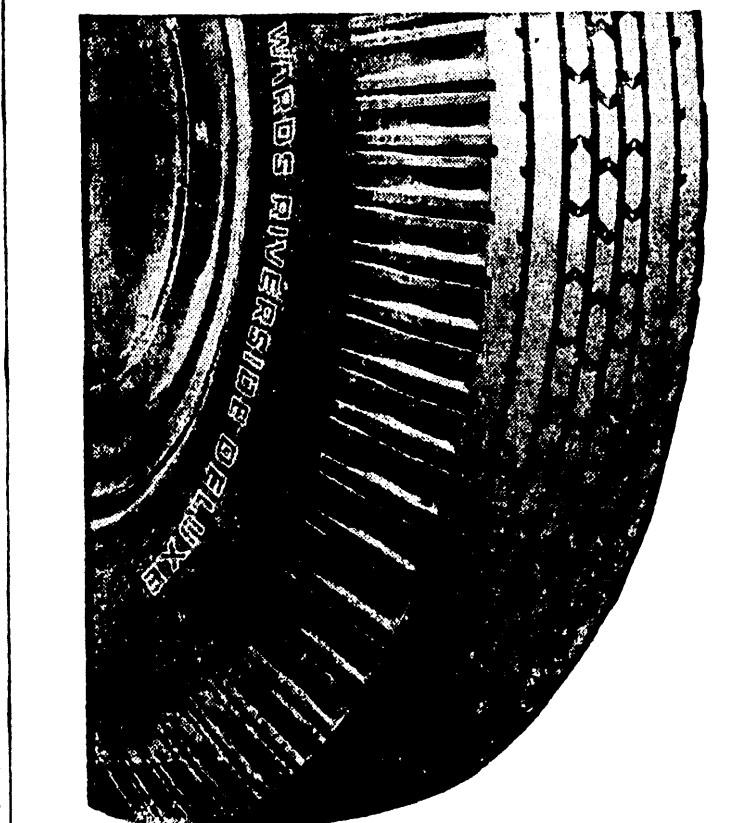

And if the Bulldogs from Georgia and the Green Wave play in their accustomed style, Dalrymple will see football, which for all modern innovations, is pretty close to the kind he played nearly 25 years ago.

Neither the Wave nor the Bulldogs bother much about finesse. Wilcox guiding the offense.

The Bulldogs will be without the services of backs Jimmy Campagna and Jimmy Williams, both of whom were injured last week. Tulane should be at full strength with the ever-improving Freddie Wilcox guiding the offense.

Sloppy Players—Mend Your Ways

If I weren't afraid of boring my readers I would probably print some such hand as today's about once a week. It might act as a

NORTH		22
♠ J 8 4 2	♥ 8 3
♦ 9 5 2	♣ Q 8 7 2
WEST		EAST (D)
♠ K Q 8 5	♥ 10 7 6 3

horrible example and a warning to all adventurous bridge bidders to mend their ways.

There is no excuse for a vulnerable overcall on the South hand. The hand may take three or four tricks, but that is hardly enough to justify a bid that promises to take seven tricks.

In this case South was promptly punished for his foolish bid. West doubled crisply, and all passed with varying emotions. North knew that he was in trouble. East was glad to have a chance to defend with his balanced hand, and South knew that he had heard the crack of doom.

West opened the eight of diamonds, and East won with the jack of diamonds and promptly returned his low trump. South played low, and West won with the nine of hearts.

West led another diamond, and East won with the queen. East now returned the jack of hearts, and South put up the ace. For lack of anything better to do, South led the ten of clubs and let it ride for a finesse.

The rest was easy for the defenders and very sad for South. East took his two remaining top diamonds, after which the defenders took their two top clubs and got out with a spade to South's ace. South had to lead trumps to West, giving up two more tricks

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

OFF THE RECORD

By Ed Reed

Although the defenders took three trumps, four diamonds, and three clubs, setting the contract four tricks for a penalty of 1100 points. This was almost twice the value of the game that East and West might have bid. They were perfectly willing to accept the gift.

Q—The bidding has been:

North	East	South	Pass
1 Diamond	Pass	1 Spade
2 Clubs	Pass	2 Spades
You, South, hold: Spades Q-9-7-3-2, Hearts A-J-10, Diamonds K-6, Clubs K-4. What do you do?
A—Bid three no-trump. With 14 points in high cards opposite an opening bid you surely want to reach a game contract. No-trump is a logical game in view of your balanced distribution and strength in the unbid suit. Hence you bid the game in no-trump.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades Q-J-7-3-2, Hearts A-J-10-5, Diamonds K-6, Clubs K-4. What do you do?

Answer Monday

Building Permits

The following building permits have been issued by city building Inspector S. H. Axel:

Mrs. Lois Englerth, to erect a one story masonry laundromat at 208 Layton avenue at a cost of $3450.

S. Elmo Holloway, to add to a one story frame residence at 1205 South 1st street at a cost of $500.

Farmers Can Get Financial Aid For Winter Crops

All eligible Ouachita parish farmers will find it profitable to take full advantage of a new agricultural conservation program practice which provides liberal cost share assistance for growing winter cover crops for soil protection and emergency forage, says Henry Bonner, Jr., assistant county agent, LSU agricultural extension service. Growing of such crops has been designated as practice number F-3 by the state agricultural stabilization and conservation committee.

Crops that can be grown under this program, says Bonner, include vetches, winter peas, mellilotus vicia, crimson clover, ryegrass, oats and other small grains, such as wheat, rye or barley. Cost share assistance is also available for fertilization of the crop as approved by the parish ASC committee.

The extension agent suggests that farmers who are short of feed should contact the parish ASC office manager, L. E. Lucas, as soon as possible and see just what they can do to make use of the new cover crop and emergency forage practice. He points out that if oats vetches, or winter peas are to be grown they should be planted as soon as possible, regardless of the moisture condition of the soil. Wheat should be planted as soon as the soil is moist. Ryegrass and crimson clover should not be planted until cool weather such as usually is expected in October.

Breadfruit trees were brought to Jamaica by Capt. Bligh of "Mutiny on the Bounty" fame.

Man Is Killed At Derrick Accident

RAYVILLE, Oct. 22—(Special)—Funeral services will be held here Sunday for a Port Sulphur man who was killed early Thursday in an oil derrick accident.

Sources said that Archie Sword, whose wife is a native of Rayville, was killed about 4 a.m. at an oil rig explosion in Port Sulphur. Services will be held at 2 p.m. at the Boeuf River Baptist church with Rev. Enon Boyette and Rev. J. S. Deal officiating. Interment will be in the Rayville Masonic cemetery.

The body will remain at Mulhearn Funeral Home until time for services.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mazis Sword, one daughter, Shells, his parents of Homer, one brother and two sisters.

FIRE CAUSES $8,000 DAMAGE
NEW ORLEANS —UP— An $8,000 fire yesterday destroyed a garage and heavily damaged a warehouse. The fire started in grass and spread to the garage. A passerby, Bill Andrews, 24, battled the blaze with a fire hose until three fire companies arrived. He was slightly burned when a wall blew out during a minor explosion.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Don't disregard the importance of that regular physical examination—call for your appointment today.

Lost Any Weight Yet? Just Stick With The Diet

This is the fifth day of the Tubby Hubby Diet. Some of you men may not have lost much yet. It is usually necessary to diet for several days before the scales begin moving in the right direction.

Just about the time you become discouraged you will suddenly lose several pounds and from then on your reduction will usually continue at a steady pace for some time. Then you may come to a standstill but if you continue with your diet this will soon pass.

I think I reported the Industrial Health Conference which was held in Houston, Texas, last fall. The purpose of this meeting was to get together other physicians, researchers, company doctors and industrial executives to discuss what can be done to reduce the mortality rate among the executive group in companies. They arrived at the conclusion that the regular physical examination is one of the main ways. Many ailments are discovered early enough to do something constructive about them.

Business as Usual

In the past if a man had a serious illness of some sort, his superiors more or less marked him off the list of those who would advance in the company. Today this is no longer so. Many men who have had serious surgery or a heart attack or ulcers go about their business just as usual. So much has been learned about these diseases and such wonderful progress has been made in surgery.

So, have your regular physical checkups and lose those extra pounds. Here are menus for you men who need to lose pounds. If you are the little woman who is reading this, help your husband reduce. I'm giving you menus for both Sunday and Monday so you may do your shopping today.

Menus for Sunday

BREAKFAST

One-half grapefruit

Two pieces of toast (whole-wheat preferable)

Four slices bacon

Coffee

DINNER

One serving of baked or broiled chicken (no dressing)

Celery

One cup of lima beans

Serving of broccoli

One roll

One pineapple ring

SUPPER

Scrambled eggs (two)

One large glass of skimmed milk or buttermilk

Two pieces of whole-wheat toast

Glass of tomato juice

before retiring

Menus for Monday

BREAKFAST

Four slices of bacon

Two poached or boiled eggs

Two pieces of toast

Coffee

LUNCH

Chicken sandwich (no mayonnaise but little butter)

Helping of green peas

Skimmed milk or buttermilk

One apple

Coffee if desired

DINNER

Minute steak or chops

Coleslaw, medium helping

Helping of spinach, greens or broccoli

One baked potato

Medium helping of Jello

Glass of orange juice before going to sleep

If you have missed some of the Hubby Tubby Menus which give a loss of from seven to 12 pounds in 12 days' time, or if you would like to have this diet series in a small booklet, send ten cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of Morning World.
